Do You PLAY FAIR Mr. Storekeeper?

Of course you would resent any idea that you did not play fair with your customers. But do you play fair with the manufacturers who help you? Do you play fair with yourself? When a manufacturer places his advertising in the newspapers of your town and makes a market for you do you back him up? Do you let the public know you have the goods? If not, why not? This is a line of questions you should ask yourself until you find a satisfactory answer. The right answer will go far towards building your business and increasing your sales in 1914. The dollar wagon is starting. Now is a good time to climb aboard!

The Bureau of Advertising.

Carvell's Defence of St. John Wakes Hazen Up

F. B. Carvell, of Carleton, read in the Ottawa Free Press of yesterday, an interview with Captain R. P. Cliff, an officer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, in which the officer stated that the report of the wreck of the Cobeguid in the Bay of Fundy at this time of the year was most denounced and characterized as the worst of murder. Mr. Carvell termed this a libelous statement, and asked the minister of marine if Captain Cliff was not an official of the marine department, but a retired sea captain, living in Montreal, who had been called in from time to time by the dominion wreck commission as a maritime assessor.
