VERMILION, May 23.

In the Assembly the debate on the interpretation of the Government with regard to war contracts was continued.

Auditor and Pasquier replied with severity to Rouher and vindicated his own exposure of the corruptions under the Empire.

He vigorously denounced Napoleon and called on the Empire, in the language of Augustus, to restore to France her Provinces and her glory.

Members of the Assembly and crowds in the galleries were greatly excited and repeatedly interrupted the speaker with passionate outbursts of enthusiasm.

Rouher replied, followed by Gambetta, who made violent and bitter attacks on the Empire.

It is reported that the Carlist leader, Lerdo, has received a fresh supply of arms and threatens vengeance on Carlists who have submitted to the authorities in Guipuzcoa.

The last Carlist band in Lerida surrendered yesterday.

Local Marine Board Examination.

A special examination for the granting of certificates of competency to Masters and Mates, was concluded this morning.

The following gentlemen, pupils of Messrs. McNally and Seaton, being declared by the Board of Examiners, to have passed a most creditable examination:

Masters—Thomas E. Cann, Yarmouth, N. S.; and George Fitzgerald, Portland, N. B.

First Mates—Charles F. Ray, Margaretville, N. B.; and Jas. E. Fitzgerald, Portland, N. B.

An Unpleasant Visitor.

As George Stewart, Jr., was pharmacopoliating some Oriental Drugs yesterday afternoon, he was astonished to see a horse's head where it shouldn't be; at the same time a drove of small girls and two or three elderly females rushed in the open shop door.

This unwarrantable intrusion on the pharmacopoliating pharmacist's pharmaceutical retirement was caused by a sudden notion of a lively bay horse, driven by Mr. J. E. Flowering, to jump from the street and trot down the sidewalk, past several shop doors. He was induced to resume the street at the corner of King and Canterbury.

"LORD KILGOBIN."

"LORD KILGOBIN" is a book that will be read by every man as well as by boys; for while it is diverting as "Harry Lorrequer," or "Charles O'Malley," it is at the same time a big game and purport thus the amusement of the reader. "Lord KilgoBIN" is, in our opinion, the best work of fiction that has been written. - Examiner, London.
