The People's Forum.

DEAR SIR,—Allow me through your columns to ask if there has been a supplementary assessment made this year. Perhaps Mayor Thomson will state if such has been done, and if not, why not, as I understand that the law requires that it be done. CITIZEN. Wolfville, Aug. 3, 1898.

Bench Notes.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, Friday last found parties at the Beach from Wolfville and Kentville. On Saturday and Monday the Island was visited by parties from Berwick, Waterville, Kentville and Grand Pre. The Church of England Sunday school of Hantsport, numbering about five hundred, had their annual picnic here on Wednesday. The weather was delightful, and all spent a very pleasant day bathing, swinging, etc.

Mr Buchanan Coming.

At a meeting of the resident clergy and representatives of the W. C. T. U. and Sons of Temperance, held in Division Hall on Monday evening last, it was unanimously resolved to invite Mr W. W. Buchanan, of Hamilton, Ont., to deliver a couple of addresses on the Plebiscite in Wolfville on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, August 9 and 10. Mr Buchanan is easily one of the foremost advocates of Prohibition in Canada, and was for many years editor of the Pampier. He is accompanied by a couple of very fine singers, Miss Grace Walton, contralto, of Wesley church choir, Hamilton, and Mr Robertson Wallace, tenor, sometime soloist of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, and later of Grace Chapel, New York. The meetings will be held in College Hall, and will doubtless attract very large audiences.

5 tons Wool wanted at the highest market prices.

The residence of X. Z. Chipman, Esq., this town, was the scene of a quiet wedding last Saturday morning, when Miss Nellie T. Chipman's youngest daughter, and Mr J. Edgar Higgins, son of Dr. D. E. Higgins, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Confirmation services were held by Bishop Courtney at Church Street last Sunday morning. The Bishop was assisted by the rector, Rev. F. H. Axford, and Rev. Wm. Cox, Jr., who is now located in P. E. I. The address was an excellent one and was listened to by a large and attentive audience. A similar service was held at Kingsport in the evening.

A conference of temperance workers is to be held in the vestry of the Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon next, at 2 o'clock, to consider action with regard to the plebiscite campaign.
