CHAMOMILE CORDIAL.

THIS Cordial, as its name announces, is compound on a basis by a Member of the Pharmaceutical Society, a Fellow of the Royal Society of Chemistry, and a Graduate in Medicine, from the Flowers of Chamomile, which is a well-known, important, & popular Tonic. Not only as a Tonic does it exert medicinal properties, but it is also a powerful, easily digested preparation, improving the former Digestion. It is a safe, positive, efficacious tonic and flavor, as well as in general character, as the Proprietor's Patent.

These incomparable virtues, while fully preserved, are more delicately concentrated and developed in the Cordial, which from its transparency and golden colour, resembles Wine, and so much may be used of it as desired. The taste is sweet and fragrant, and the taste most grateful and delicious, as is evident to the body, the Temperature subsiding, or heat-like consciousness.

TESTIMONIALS:

Toronto, June 26th, 1852.

Messrs. REXFORD & CO.,

GENTLEMEN.—We have tried the Sample Bottle, with which you favoured us, of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and find it as you describe, fragrant and agreeable to taste, and consider it an excellent Preparation for the use of the valuable Tonic Properties of the Flowers of Chamomile.

We are, &c.,

GENTLEMEN.—I only received and have tried the sample of "Compound Chamomile Cordial," which you sent me.

Aware of the manner in which you prepare it, and of the nature and quality of the ingredients which you employ in its manufacture, I cannot expect to express my opinion of it, without writing my opinion of it, which I should not hesitate to do under similar circumstances.

I consider it a very elegant Pharmaceutical Preparation, no scruples of being made, exceeding, possibly, in a medicinal as well as therapeutic point of view. It will serve as an excellent entomological for much of the trash which is purchased as Wine for the use of invalids; and will also prove an excellent medium for the agreeable conveyance of remedies, which, without some auxiliaries, are often repellent against, and rejected by the stomach.

Yours, &c.,

Messrs. REXFORD & CO.,

GENTLEMEN.—I only received and have tried the Sample of "Compound Chamomile Cordial," which you sent me. I consider it a very elegant Preparation, and useful in all cases where a mild Tonic is required, more especially in cases of Dyspepsia, and the weakness of the Stomach, it being very agreeable to taste, can be taken by any one.

Messrs. REXFORD & CO.,

GENTLEMEN.—I have received the Sample Bottle of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and consider it a beautiful as well as highly palatable preparation. The aromatic and peculiar bitter flavor, in which lies the essential Medicinal qualities, appear to be largely infused and well preserved; and as this vegetable Tonic is highly beneficial, I would advise it to all persons (depending on delicacy, or want of tone of the digestive organs, (the form most frequently met with in this country,) to your Doctor will, I doubt not, form an invaluable addition to our Pharmacopeia.

From the knowledge possessed by me of Mr. Rexford and his very high reputation as a Pharmaceutical Chemist, I feel much pleasure in confidently recommending his preparation of this valuable Tonic to my Friends, friends, and to the public, as a delightful and invigorating Cordial.

I am, Yours, &c.,

GEORGE HOLME,
Surgeon.

GENTLEMEN.—I have no hesitation in expressing to you my professional approbation of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial." The Tonic properties of the Flowers of Chamomile, with which it is finely inclosed, are of great value; and the Medicinal qualities of that vegetable ingredient so fully admitted in Dyspeptic complaints, and I consider the idea of administering it in the pleasing form of a Cordial, most happy; and

The Castilian Hair Invigorator.

THIS elegant Toilet Preparation is warranted to excel all others ever offered to the public, for preserving and restoring the hair; it prevents or cures baldness or grey hair; cure dandruff and ringworm; and is of the highest importance, as it is unlike most other Toilet preparations, being perfectly harmless, yet successful for the purposes recommended. It gives the hair a beautifully red, smooth and glossy appearance; in this it differs from other preparations, all of which more or less harden and dry the hair. The Spanish Ladies do just famed for beautiful and glossy hair, have used for centuries. It causes the hair to retain its original color to the latest period of life, only making it assume a darker shade if originally very light. Dissolved hair becomes and falls out or turns grey. The Invigorator removes such disease, and restores the skin and hair to a healthy condition.

The Castilian Hair Invigorator
