Mercantile Summary.

FROM Quebec comes the cheering news that sixteen vessels with a measurement of eighteen thousand tons are in process of building there this winter.

A PERSON named Wm. Ryan has been arrested in Hamilton on a charge of passing counterfeit half dollar pieces, which have been plentiful of late in that vicinity.

A MONTREAL lumber house, Finlay & Bros-seau, lately from Laprairie, have made an assignment, and show a poor estate. They were not long in business but owe a great deal.

JEWETT'S estate, which, like a kaleidoscope, shows a different appearance every day, is now to be settled by 25 cents cash instead of 20 cents cash, and 10 cents endorsed paper as formerly announced.

THE Agricultural Works in Kingston, of which Mr. J. G. Chown is proprietor, are, we believe, at a stand. Some arrangement for time will be necessary, although the assets of the works exceed their liabilities.

IT IS noted as an occurrence without parallel at this time of year in the memory of Custom House people on Lake Erie that a clearance was taken out by a tug-boat on January 3rd from Buffalo for Ashtabula Ohio.

THE little port of Maitland, at the mouth of the Shubenacadie river, which discharges into the basin of Minas has, within the past few months, registered no less than 18 new ships of 14,276 tons, valued at over half a million of dollars.
