

levied by a writ of seizure, under the hand and seal of the said Justice of the Peace, with the costs of suit, and the travelling expenses of the prosecutor. The produce of the fine shall be remitted to the Receiver General. When the fine exceeds forty shillings, and the imprisonment is for more than eight days, the defendant may appeal to the Governor in Council, whereof five members with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Chief Justice shall constitute a Court of Appeal in this behalf, of which the Judgment shall be final.

