

4. The School Committee will necessarily, in their collective and individual capacities, frequently visit the Schools, and enquire as to the comfort of the teacher and scholars, and on these occasions their Educational attainments should not be overlooked ; but the Board presses on their attention a correct noting of the time when the services of the several teachers periodically commence and terminate.

5. The Board invites the members of the School Committee to join the Trustees at the periodical visits of the Inspectors ; requests them to cause a copy of the School Act; and of the regulations made thereunder, together with a Visitors' Book to be kept in each school ; and especially to communicate from time to time to the Board through the Chief Superintendent, or Inspectors, whatever may in their opinion be calculated to promote the educational interests of the juvenile population.

IV. OF BOOKS, MAPS, AND APPARATUS; AND THE BOOK FUND.

The existing selections and arrangements, "as regards the Books, Maps, and apparatus, are continued until they shall be revised after due inquiry.

V. OF SCHOOL DISTRICT LIBRARIES.

1. The Law allows a Library to be established in each School district, and appropriates from the provincial treasury a sum equal to half the amount raised for the purpose in each district ; but not more than five pounds can be drawn from the treasury in any one year.

2. The School Committee is appointed by Law, to have the immediate controul of the District Library ; and is authorized to appoint a Librarian, Secretary and Treasurer. The committee is necessarily empowered to determine where the Library shall be kept, and to make regulations for its preservation.

3. Catalogues of Books suitable for these Libraries will be kept in the Chief Superintendent's office, and be furnished on application to the School Committees, who shall make their selections therefrom.

4. In these Libraries no work of a licentious, vicious, or immoral tendency, and no works hostile to the Christian Religion can be admitted. Neither is it compatible with the object to introduce works involving religious controversy.

Subject to these exceptions and guards, as wide a selection as possible should be made of standard books of reference, and of useful and entertaining knowledge.

VI. OF THE TRAINING AND MODEL SCHOOLS.

The present Rules and Regulations for the Training and Model Schools will remain in force.

VII. OF LICENSING TEACHERS.

1. Licenses to teach in the provincial Parish Schools heretofore issued and not cancelled under any general or special order, shall continue in force, until revised or cancelled by a general or special order of the Board.
