A COMPLETE COLLECTION of MEMOIRS

Relative to the HISTORY of GREAT BRITAIN, with Notes and Illustrations. 8vo.

The publication of this great work, which has been so long wanting in our Literature, will be superintended by some of the first Literary Characters of the age. It will contain many interesting and important documents, some of which have been hitherto unpublished, and some recently discovered; which have been obligingly communicated to the Publisher.

The Work will commence with the DIARY of Sir SYMONDS D'EWES, which will be published in January.

This will be followed by the MEMOIRS of Sir JAMES MELVIL, Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to Mary Queen of Scots; printed from the Original MSS. (containing several important passages omitted in all former Editions,) found amongst the Papers of the EARL of MARCHMONT, and presented to the Publisher by Sir GEORGE ROSE.
