

And to constitute polling districts in certain cases ; subdividing the electoral district where necessary.

And fix a polling station in each, and additional ones when requisite.

number of, or probable number of persons qualified to vote in each city, town, ward, parish, township, local municipality or other locality where voters are so entitled to vote ; and if such city, town, ward, parish, township, local municipality or other locality has not been constituted or sub-divided for electoral purposes into polling districts, by the Legislature, or by the local authorities under the legislation of the Province wherein such electoral district is situate, or where such subdivision comprises more than three hundred voters, he shall constitute or subdivide the said city, town, ward, parish, township, local municipality or other locality or subdivision, into polling districts in a convenient manner, so that there shall be at least one polling district for every two hundred voters ; and he shall also fix a polling station in a central and convenient place in each polling district ; and the returning officer may, in his discretion, grant such additional polling places in such polling districts as the extent of the district and the remoteness of any body of its voters from the polling place renders necessary, although the voters thereof are less than the number above specified. 41 V., c. 6, s. 1.

Polling days.

14. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained the proclamation hereinafter required shall be posted up in all the electoral districts, at least eight days before the day fixed for the nomination of candidates ; and the day for holding the polls shall be the seventh day next after the expiration of the day fixed for the nomination of candidates, that is on the same or corresponding day of the week next after that on which the nomination has taken place, or if such seventh day is a statutory holiday, then on the next following day not being a Sunday or a statutory holiday :

Re-drafted.

Nomination and polling days in Algoma and Gaspé.

2. In the electoral districts in the Province of British Columbia, and in the electoral districts of Algoma, in the Province of Ontario, and Gaspé, in the Province of Quebec, the returning officers shall fix the day for the nomination of candidates, and also the day and places for holding the polls : the nomination in any of the said electoral districts shall take place not less than fifteen days or more than thirty days after the proclamation hereinafter required has been posted up, and the day for holding the polls shall be not less than fifteen days or more than thirty days after the day on which the nomination is to take place,—neither the day of nomination nor the day of posting the proclamation being reckoned :

In Chicoutimi and Saguenay.

3. In the electoral district of Chicoutimi and Saguenay the nomination shall take place not less than eight days, or more than fifteen days after the proclamation ; and the day
