

WORLD WILDLIFE FUND GETS RESULTS.

First, The White Pelican. Now, The Wood Bison. These two animals are no longer endangered in Canada.

You may not have known that they were ever endangered. But consider this. You share a life support system with all the wildlife on this planet. Every day, three species disappear. Animals like the Great Auk, The Dawson Caribou and the Passenger Pigeon. And plant life that can never be recovered.

When a species is threatened, your life system is threatened. World Wildlife Fund gets results.

Both in Canada and around the world. Currently, we are supporting more than 200 projects in Canada.

We're also helping to save the Giant Panda in China. The Tropical Rain Forest in Costa Rica. And more. Your donations will help. Every single cent you give will help save wildlife. Remember, it's your life, too.
