Late Starters

Cathie Tapp and Marie Cameron shared the honours in Late Starters bowling league this week with each winning a pair of series.

Rolling consistently above the 200-pin level, Cathie Tapp turned in scores of 241, 203 and 231 to accumulate 675 points—good enough to beat out Shirley Martin (657) and Lauretta Gratton (638) for the triple flat laurels.

Her zero handicap didn't hold Cathie back from adding the handicap triple division, too, ahead of Anna Mackay (670) and Lauretta Gratton (665).

Singles went to Marie Cameron with 278 (flat) and 297 (handicap), ahead of Lauretta Gratton, Shirley Martin and Sandra Rodgers.

Cathie Tapp continues to hold high average with 205, followed by Ray McGoogan (202), June Haslam (202), Shirley Martin (201) and Allison Dicks (200).

Standings: Teddy Bears, 70; Ding Bats, 66; Super Doopers, 61; Trip Lighties, 53; Thunder Balls, Chargers, 49; Pink Panthers, 46; Born Losers, 41; Gagma's, 40; Pin Pushers, It's, 39; Eager Beavers, 36.

Couples

Harry Lincar displayed a pair of hot shooting hands, dominating the men's section of the Park Royal couples bowling league this week.

Lincar took both ends of the singles (flat 355, handicap 368), then added triple flat (745) and handicap (784) laurels for a clean sweep.

Polly Bennett came close to duplicating the feat in the ladies division when she took both triples (flat 693, handicap 786) and handicap singles (288) with only Cathy Dorion's 287-pin single flat spoiling a complete sweep.

Ray McGoogan (213) and Bill Sturr (227) continue to top the high average list.

Kingsway

First series winner Joe Hillis hung on to his slim lead in Kingsway Transport Bowling League competition. He now has 26 points (39,571 pinfall), one ahead of the runner-up duo of Joe Del Mastro (38,806) and Bob Manser (36,922).

John Burns' side occupies fourth with 23, followed by Ken Nixon (21), Tony Triumbari (21), Tom Sait (14) and Alex Martin (13).

Standings: Schoolin' Stuff, 131; Guaranteed Weed Control, 129; Review, 128; Al Ross—Carpentry, 119; Dominion Sash, 101; Streetsville Legion, 97; Villa Bowl, 67.

MEADOWVALE
Dave Augustine led the men in the Meadowvale Mixed League rolling both single and triple flat at 262 and 717 while Junior Cardy had the with-handicap bests at 296 and 797. For the ladies Ivy Albert took single flat at 233; Mary Konarzycki single with handicap at 285; and Susan Liles both triples at 611 and 746.

Standings, Second Series: Alley Cats, 7; 747's, 7; Rovers, 7; Slow Pokes, 5; Snappers, 2; Happy's, 0; Beetles, 0; Bed Bugs, 0.

All's well that ends well!

"Hector Who?"
The sign above the dressing room door of the Mississauga rep juvenile Pennant Clippers at Dixie Arena was an unmistakable reference to the fact that Hector Lachapelle, the man regarded as silversmith of the team's fortunes, was absent when his charges survived several bitter blows from Dame Fortune and dozens of slaps from their eager opponents to win a holiday hockey tournament.

It all happened in Chatham, where Clippers disposed of London, 9-0.

Oakridges, 4-1, and the host Chatham team, 6-5, in overtime, to emerge winners of the juvenile tournament. Lachapelle, on a Nassau holiday, missed the champagne moment. In the coach's absence, manager Bruce Caton handled the leaders of the Metro Toronto Hockey League juvenile B division and experienced a series of exedrin headaches.

For one thing, Wayne Hamill and Glen Newell were holidaying and Andy Kennerly, another first stringer, had to work.

That left Clippers with only 13 available bodies.

Then, manager Caton received another bitter blow when defenseman Jim McGogan suffered a broken leg while skating.

But it wasn't all. Another defenseman Stew Dickie was involved in a car accident and, as a result, Dickie, sharpshooter Doug Kozak and Joe Schafer got a late start and missed most of the first game.

From then on, things got brighter and the Mississaugans knocked off Oakridges in the semi-finals, making sure of a berth in the grand finale against Chatham.

Raiders broke the pinch easily they were missing the free throws that resulted from Lorne Park fouls.

A jump shot by Mark Stobart put the Raiders ahead once more. In perhaps the crucial play of the game, Shawn Dunn stole the ball as Lorne Park came down-court and the Raiders went into a stall.

With 25 seconds left, Paul Ford fouled Peter Mallany and the Raider guard made one and a bonus to make the court 58-55; Erindale, Garth Nicholas' short jumper pulled Lorne Park within one but Mallany fed a pass to Medlar and his layup ended the contest.

For Lorne Park Nicholas had 16 points. His left-handed fadeaway jumper was unstoppable. John Turpie fired 12 points. Turpie, usually the quarterback of the offence was hampered by a bad ankle and did not play during the

At T.L. Kennedy, a two point first quarter, and missed foul shots near the end cost the Kougars their home opener. They lost 43-40 to a Brampton Centennial team which shot well from outside against Kennedy's zone.

In the east, Glenforest continued their unbeaten streak with a 68-41 defeat of Applewood.
