Sir,

In the Annual Report of Mr Agent Martle for 1887 he states that Cumber, the nominal Chief of the Band whose Reserve is situated at the junction of Silver Creek and the Assiniboine River, has removed to Way-way-see-capped Reserve at Lizard Point, on the pretext that wood and hay are more easily obtained there, and he would be much nearer to the hunting grounds of the Riding Mountain. Mr Martle also states that Long Claws and his relations
