

- Clay, Henry—Continued
 in middle of century, 99-100;
 compromise, 107; on Fugitive Slave Law, 110; proposes gradual emancipation for Kentucky, 147
- Coffin, Levi, reputed president of Underground Railroad, 114-120
- Colonization, societies, 20; Lundy
 and, 30; Garrison repudiates, 31; Birney and, 34-35, 36
- Compromise of 1850, 104, 148
- Congress, petition presented in 1790, 11-12; right of petition,
 78-82
- Cook, one of John Brown's party, 226
- Cotton industry, effect on slavery, 21-22
- Crandall, Prudence, 70
- Creole*, The, slave case, 82
- Cuba, urged to throw off Spanish yoke, 61; United States protests emancipation in, 61
- Curtis, Judge B. R., dissenting opinion in Dred Scott case, 199
- Davis, Jefferson, guardian of pro-slavery interests, 146; on popular sovereignty, 195-96;
 decides on secession, 202
- Davis, John, of Massachusetts, 91
- Democratic party, denounces abolitionists (1840), 88; favors
 annexation of Texas (1844), 88,
 89; nominates Cass (1848),
 92; split in, 92, 105; first called Republican party, 97; fusion
 with Whigs in South, 105;
 supports compromise and Fugitive Slave Law (1852), 111;
 re absorbs Free-soilers, 144;
 supports Calhoun's position
 on slavery, 194
- Dew, Thomas, 65
- Dickson, John, 79
- Dillingham, Richard, 122
- District of Columbia, Congress
 urged to prohibit slavery in,
 94-95; abolition of slave-trade
 in, 108-09
- Douglas, S. A., Jackson's mantle falls on, 100; an expansionist,
 102-03; popular sovereignty,
 148, 195; Kansas-Nebraska
 bill, 149; opposes free-state government in Kansas, 158;
 attitude toward Kansas settlers, 174; and Sumner, 176;
 opposes Lecompton Constitution, 187; responsible for its defeat, 199; reelection to Senate, 199-202; Lincoln-
 Douglas debates, 200-02
- Douglass, Frederick, 48, 123, 225
- Dow, C. M., free-state settler in Kansas, 156
- Dred Scott decision, 101, 191-94,
 198-99
- Emancipation advocated by Friends, 8, 11; in North, 18-19, 20; "horrors of San Domingo," 24; Garrison advocates, 31; Birney approves gradual,
 34-35; probable outcome of peaceable, 142; Clay proposes gradual, 147
- Emigrant Aid Company, 150-
 151; see also New England
 Emigrant Aid Association
- Everett, Edward, Governor of Massachusetts, 71-72
- Faulkner, of Virginia, 64
- Fillmore, Millard, approves compromise measures, 107; defeated by Buchanan, 163
- Florida to be slave State, 17;
 wilds as refuge for fugitive slaves, 112
- Floyd, J. B., Secretary of War, receives anonymous letter about
 John Brown, 227