

HIS MAJESTY, KING EDWARD VII.

At the farewell luncheon His Majesty declared that one of the chief reasons of the tour was his desire to acknowledge through the Duke the loyal help the colonies had given to the Mother Country during recent events.