CHILDHOOD OF THE WORLD;

A SIMPLE ACCOUNT OF

MAN IN EARLY TIMES.

BY

EDWARD CLODD, F.R.A.S.

Professor MAX MULLER in a letter to the Author says:—

“ I read your book with great pleasure. I have no doubt it will do good and hope you will continue your work. Nothing spoils our temper so much as having to unlearn in youth, manhood, and even old age, so many things which we were taught as children. A book like yours will prepare a far better soil in the child's mind, and I was delighted to have it to read to my children.”

“ A very interesting, wise, and useful little manual. There is not a teacher in the land who would not do good service to his kind by introducing it to his young pupils.”—Schoolmaster.
