FAREWELL SERVICE

Rev. Alex. W. Torrie preached his farewell sermon to a large congregation last evening at William street Baptist church. "The Cross" was the subject of his discourse, which was an interesting one.

Mr. Torrie has been in Chatham about five months and has made a host of friends by his earnest work and pleasing manner.

A farewell by the whole congregation will be given in the Sunday school hall of the church to-night. Mr. Torrie leaves to-morrow for Toronto to finish his last year in theology.

Those who live on the Raleigh-Harthere was a perfect deluge. The farm of Robert Young, on the Townfarm of Robert Young, on the Townline, was nearly undated. The water fell so fast that the ditches could not carry it away. The garden back of the orchard was flooded and only the tops of the mangold Wurtzels showed above the flood Robert Young was out in the field some distance from the house. He emptied the water out of a tank he had been using for watering the horses in the field and paddled home. This section of the County has had more rain than any other section all season, and the drains have been taxed to the uttermost. Near the Young farm the water on many occasions this year has flowed across the road into Raleigh. Thursday it was flowing across the road at this point and took the passing buggies up to the axle. The Raleigh Township Council are going to deepen the ditch on their side of the road. Prior to this year these ditches have always been sufficient to earry away all the water
