

Let me thank you for the offer of a post in connection with your society. I gladly accept it, and shall endeavor in every way to give you aid, and I ask you to accept, with my thanks for your address, my best wishes for your prosperity in the useful and important task you have set before you.

LORNE.

At the conclusion the various officers were presented to His Excellency, who spoke a few words to each in relation to military matters, etc., after which the deputation withdrew.

---

OTTAWA, January 28th, 1879.

Meeting of Council according to notice and pursuant to adjournment on 18th December, 1878.

Present:—Lieut.-Colonel Brunel in Chair; Lieut.-Colonels White, T. Fraser, Macdonald, Major Macpherson, Captain Tilton, Captain Cotton, Lieut.-Colonel Macpherson, Treasurer; Lieut.-Colonel Stuart, Secretary.

In accordance with Clause 17 of the Constitution, the Report of the Council having been discussed, was agreed to and ordered to be printed for distribution.

Moved by Major Macpherson, seconded by Captain Cotton,

That in the Appendix to the Report in the list of the thirty highest scores from which the Wimbledon Team can be selected, an asterisk be placed opposite the name of Private Wynne, referring to a foot note as follows:—

“Reported as disqualified by Province of Quebec Rifle Association.”

—Carried.

Meeting dissolved.