

the tea meeting, $17.25, and the Committee return many thanks for the supply of bread, meat, tea, sugar, milk, &c., &c., sent by different friends.

Miss Hervey having organized a Poor Relief Society, it was unnecessary to grant donations of bread and meat so freely as before from the Gratuity Fund; but the most needy workers were allowed to purchase clothing at reduced prices. The Gratuity Fund being very small, this involved a loss to the institution to the amount of $40.50.

The kindness of the Hon. Mrs. Rollo in obtaining the attendance of the military bands at the Bazaar, and her liberal contributions from the sale of photographs of $24.80, are acknowledged with gratitude, as are also the donations of bread and meat for the poor, continually received from a military friend.

The donations of $100 from the District Savings Bank, and of the sum of $50 "From a Friend of Industry" are gratefully acknowledged.

Many thanks are returned for the following contributions:—

A friend.....	One piece Flannel.
Mr. Graham	Account Books.
Mrs. Buntin.	Batting, Stationery, &c.
Mrs. Johnston.....	Rubbers and Shoes.
Mr. John Brown.....	4 Cords of Wood.
Messrs. Sinclair, Jack & Co.....	Box of Tea.
Mrs. Hill.....	Note paper.
Mr. Weir.....	Books and Stationery.
Useful remnants from Messrs. Thompson & Co., Claxton, McKay & Brothers, J. Stephens & Co., J. M. Ross & Co.

At a meeting held on the 21st of May, Mrs. Forsyth tendered her resignation of the office of Treasurer, which resignation was reluctantly received by the Committee. A unanimous vote of thanks was then presented to Mrs. Forsyth for the efficient manner in which she had discharged the duties of her office, and the deep regret felt by the Committee in losing her services as Treasurer.

On the 3rd of March the Committee forwarded an application to the Board of Management of the Protestant House of Refuge, petitioning to have accommodation provided for the Industrial