

All lights in the bedrooms are extinguished at 9.30 p. m., except in cases where special permission has been granted by the Principal.

The Principal, with the Head Governess, will receive the students on their first arrival at the College, assign them their rooms and change the same whenever circumstances require, guide the formation of their personal habits and manners, and exercise a general supervision over their moral interests.

Boarders are required to keep their rooms in order, under the supervision of the Head Governess.

Respect and prompt obedience to the Teachers and Governesses are expected at all times. Continued misconduct or insubordination subjects to suspension and expulsion.

Damages to the building, apartments, furniture and grounds are charged to those who commit them.

No lending or borrowing of money, books, clothes or jewellery allowed, unless by permission of the Principal or Head Governess.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR DAY PUPILS.

Day pupils must be present five minutes before the assembling of the class. Those coming late, or who may have been absent, must bring a note of explanation from their parents or guardians.

They are not allowed to remain in the College or College grounds out of Class hours, nor are they allowed to go into any part of the premises into which their duties do not call them, unless by special permission.

They must never be the bearers of any notes, messages or packages to or from the resident students in the College.

It is very desirable that applications for admission should be received and registered at least one month before the opening of the College sessions. Rooms will be assigned according to the date of definite application.

Applications should contain information on the following points: (1st) age; (2nd) branches of study recently pursued; (3rd) special wishes of parents or guardians as to studies.

While the College is in connection with the Presbyterian Church, the teaching is thoroughly unsectarian. A Bible class
