

THE INSURANCE INVASION OF THE UNITED KINGDOM is proceeding rapidly and successfully. The Canada Life is established in King William street, London, with A. W. Cheyne as manager for Great Britain and Ireland. Its reception has been very good on this side. The Sun Life of Canada has been doing considerable business for many years now in Queen Victoria street, London. A few doors from the Canada Life is situated the British head office of the Citizens' Life of Australia. The Mutual Life of Australia is situated under the shadow of the Bank of England, and has been authorized under the Life Assurance Companies' Act to carry on life and annuity business in every form in Great Britain and Ireland. In the particularly insurance thoroughfare of Cornhill we get the National Mutual Life of Australasia. From South Africa comes the Southern Life of Cape Town. Its entry here is only a sort of first step, but denotes enterprise. In the same way the Standard Fire and Marine of New Zealand has got its foot in at St. Michael's alley, Cornhill, and the United and Sydney at St. Michael's House, Cornhill. The New Zealand Insurance does a little marine underwriting in Cornhill, as also does the South British of New Zealand at Jerusalem Chambers, Cornhill. Cheek by jowl with the Standard of New Zealand in St. Michael's alley is the small London branch of the Colonial Mutual Fire, of Melbourne. Further down Cornhill, at Abchurch lane, the Bombay Fire and Marine does a little business.

But principal of all the colonial fire and marine offices here is the Western of Toronto, whose London manager, Mr. W. B. Meikle, has done excellent service in the way of making the office known and respected. In historic Change alley, another turning out of Cornhill, the British office of this company is a familiar sight. The prompt and liberal settlement of claims in London has paved the way to success.—The "Money-Maker."
