SUN LIFE LIBERALITY REPEATED.

A decision of importance to former policyholders of the British Columbia Life, recently reassured by the Sun Life, has been made regarding the extra premium chargeable under their policies where the assured engages in military or naval service.

The Sun Life management has voluntarily waived all restrictions regarding military and naval service in the case of British Columbia Life policies issued prior to 1st August, 1914, and in force on the date of the completion of the agreement, and have further agreed that the present war clause of the Sun Life be made to apply to all policies issued since 1st August, 1914. Even in cases where British Columbia Life policyholders have signed an agreement limiting the company's liability to 25 per cent. of the sum assured, the Sun Life has undertaken to protect them against the war risk for the full amount.

Though according to the terms of the reassurance, the Sun Life assumes only the liabilities covered by the British Columbia Life, it has decided to treat these new policyholders on exactly the same basis as if they had originally held Sun Life policies; accordingly, any restrictions regarding military or naval service on policies issued before the outbreak of war, have been waived, and the holders of such policies who are now, or who will be engaged in military or naval duties, will secure the full benefits without extra premiums or other restrictions.

The feeling appears to be that a strong, well-established life company is warranted in adopting this broad, patriotic policy, whereas the smaller and younger life companies have felt compelled to charge an extra premium to offset the prospective extra mortality due to war.

A concession such as this will come as no surprise to a public familiar with the liberality of treatment consistently accorded to the policyholders of companies that have been reassured by the Sun Life. That it will be received with warm approval and appreciation by these policyholders and their beneficiaries goes without saying.
