A story is told of a woman whose husband had one day been away from home much longer than usual. She waited patiently, however, when, to her surprise and alarm, a band of ruffians rode up and dismounted a little distance from the hut, and, approaching her, the leader of the party exclaimed apologetically:

"We come to tell yer, madam, that we've lynched your husband. We admit we've hung the wrong man, so you've got the laugh on us there."

A Tale.

There was a man of modest means. But inclination gay, Who sold a corner lot and bought A motor car one day. He closed his business up to ride Within the big machine, And parted with his diamond ring To buy the gasoline.

Before, along the country roads The sunac lit its fires, He put a mortgage on his house To purchase rubber tires; And next he auctioned off his beds, His tables and his chairs To give the car a coat of paint And make some slight repairs.

But speeding in the early dusk, Without his lamps alight, A man in blue and brass appeared And stopped his dizzy flight. He didn't have a single cent To pay the fine imposed; They took the auto for the debt, And so the tale was closed.

HOLSTEINS AND OXFORD SHEEP.

Mr. W. A. Bryant, Cairngorm, Ont., breeder of Holstein cattle and Oxford Down sheep, writes: As the lease of the farm I have rented has expired, we have decided to give up the dairy business, and are offering all our cows and heifers for sale. They are all richly bred and good milkers, bred from sires bred by A. C. Hallman, Breslau, and Geo. Rice, Tillsonburg. We are going to price them at close prices. There are seventeen head of cows and heifers due to calve in April and May, in calf to our stock bull, Prince Gretqui De Kol, whose dam at three years old, made nearly 19 lbs. of butter in seven days. We are offering our stock bull for sale also. We have shown our cattle at all the principal shows in this part, and have won almost everything hung up in the prize line. To anyone wishing to go into the dairy business and buy the herd, we will sell at a bargain. For further information, write Mr. Bryant as above.

One day Dr. Norman McLeod, who was a large and healthy man, and one of his burly elders went to pay a visit to a certain Mrs. MacLaren, of the congregation, who lived in the Scot Hills. She was a frugal woman, but determined that they should have the best in the house. So she piled the table with jellies and jam and preserves and shortbread, and they partook unsparingly. After the meal the elder said to her: "Mrs. MacLaren, were you at the kirk on Sunday?" "Oh, aye," she said, "I was." "And what did you think of the treatment of the miracle?" (The sermon had been on the loaves and fishes.) "I thought it was good," said Mrs. MacLaren. "And what is your idea on the subject, Mrs. MacLaren?" asked the minister. "Losh," said their hostess suddenly. "I's thinkin' that if you and the elder had bin in the congregation there wadna bin twelve baskets of fragments for the disciples to gather up."

The Inquirer—But what is it you men have struck for?

The Striker—Well, I'm blessed if I know, guv'ner, but we ain't goin' back till we've got it.
