

SUNDAY WORLD WAS IN ERROR

Dr. Clark Declares Mr. Stanfield Did Not Make Threats

QUIET DAY IN HOUSE

OTTAWA, Ont., April 5.—The Commons spent one of the quietest days of the session today clearing up a few of the remnants of private members' part of the order paper.

Hon. Mr. Templeman introduced a bill to compel manufacturers of feeding stuffs to register and to place upon each package a guaranteed analysis of the contents. Bill was read a first time.

Dr. Clark (Red Deer) on a question of privilege called the attention to a statement in the Toronto Sunday World to the effect that in the course of the scene on Friday night, Mr. Stanfield, the member for Colchester, had made an insulting remark concerning Mr. Foster and that he informed him (Dr. Clark) that if he did not instantly withdraw the remark he would threaten him. Dr. Clark emphatically denied that any such incident occurred.

Dr. Neely also contradicted a statement in the same paper that he, too, had had an altercation with Mr. Stanfield.

The greater part of the rest of the sitting was spent in discussing a resolution proposed by Dr. Shaffner, Conservative member for Souris, Manitoba, calling on the government to take over terminal and transfer elevators in the west. The debate was confined chiefly to western members. Liberal representatives urging that before any such radical proposal was adopted the system of inspection provided for in the new grain inspection act passed last session should be given a fair trial.

The debate was adjourned when the House rose at 12:15.

CHRISTOPHER HOLLAND

SENTENCED TO 5 YEARS

Man Who Swindled Banks Conceals Fate With Calm Indifference

ZOO TIGER SLAYS

TORONTO, April 5.—Ground guilty by a jury this morning of deliberate attempt to defraud a number of banks by forging checks Christopher A. M. Holland alias David Newhall, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. The prisoner accepted the sentence with the same calm indifference that had marked his conduct and attitude throughout the case. He was captured in Philadelphia Feb. 13, about ten days after leaving Toronto.

When the legislature assembled this afternoon Hon. A. J. Matheson introduced a bill to authorize the raising of $3,500,000 on the general credit of the province to be used in the construction of an electric transmission line. Although the estimates called for only $3,125,000 for this purpose he had deemed it prudent to get authority for $3,500,000.

The spring restlessness of a tiger in the Zoo today as the cause of the death of two ocelots. The tiger pawed around knocked away the board which separated his cage from that temporarily occupied by the ocelots, seeing the opening the female ocelot began investigating and walked into the tiger's cage. Hardly had she entered when she was struck to death by the tiger's paw and went to the great beyond. A minute or so afterwards the male ocelot was seen in the tiger's cage and met the same fate.

GRAFTERS THERE, ASSERTS MARTIN

MONTRÉAL, April 5.—There was a hat time in the City Council this afternoon when Ald. Martin stated that that body contained a number of grafters. Pressed to state what he meant, he went on to declare that men were being held up by aldermen so that they were compelled to pay large sums for jobs and then to pay for protection. Names were demanded, but these he refused to give unless he was granted a special committee of inquiry.

"What happened to me?" asked the Chronic Optimist, when he woke up in the hospital.

"A shark bit your leg off," said the nurse.

"Oh, well," he mused, "I had rheumatism in that leg, anyhow."—Cleveland Leader.

"A man about town as near as I kin tiger it out," remarked Uncle Goshall Hemlock, "is a fellow who wants to loaf around from pillar to post. Ain't satisfied to take up a place with the solid citizen every evening in the grocery store."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

TORIES SPLIT ON LOAN BILL

After Easter They May Decide on Proper Attitude to Take

OTTAWA, April 5.—The Grand Trunk Pacific loan resolution, which will probably come up in the Commons again tomorrow will in the absence of the opposition leader, who has gone to New York for the Easter holidays, likely pass with but little further debate. When the bill gives effect to the resolution is introduced after the Easter recess the opposition will then probably have more to say on the subject, but meanwhile party is divided as to just what attitude to take.

The demand of some of the younger members of the party that Mr. Borden should follow up the logical conclusion of his argument in criticizing the loan and come out squarely for public ownership is not endorsed by a large wing of the party who view public ownership as a last resort. Moreover, it is also pointed out that under the terms of agreement with the Grand Trunk Pacific the way is not at present open to parliament to take over the undertaking unless the company is a consenting party. The probable outcome will be the continuance of the present negative policy of criticism without any suggested alternative to the proposal of the government.

J. S. SMITH REVIEWS HISTORY OF CHURCH

Special Roll Call Held in Anniversary Services at Waterloo St. Church

Last night's roll call at Waterloo street United Baptist church was an event of much importance in the celebration of the sixty-seventh anniversary of the church.

The service was one to be remembered by all who attended. Clerk J. S. Smith read the abridged history of the church. The address was full of reminiscences of olden times and much enjoyed. He traced the history of the church from 1842, when Samuel J. Hart was pastor, and in 1847, when the first house of worship was opened. He told of their endeavors to bring their church before the God-fearing.

Deacon William Peters then addressed the meeting.

He spoke of his childhood and told in touching terms of his advance to manhood when he gave himself up to the Father and was baptized at 19, in the church which he had struggled for, had finally entered with a will and determination to better himself and the church and had finally succeeded to both.

DECLARE BACKBONE HAS BEEN BROKEN

DETROIT, Mich., April 5.—"We have broken the backbone of the liquor traffic in Michigan," declared Superintendent George W. Morrow of the Michigan Anti-Saloon League, at midnight tonight.

Definite returns at that time showed that of the 27 counties which voted on the question of abolishing the sale or manufacture of liquor in their borders, nineteen had gone "dry," seven had gone "wet," and indications were that the remaining county, Jackson, had voted for prohibition by the slender margin of thirty votes. Before today's election eleven of the 28 counties of the state were "dry."

IT WANTS ALL GOING TO IT

Island Delegation Off to Ottawa TO PRESS CLAIMS

Many Millions Demanded From Federal Treasury in Settlement of Claims

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., April 5.—Before the Dominion Parliament closes, there will wait upon the Federal cabinet a delegation from the Island Government, to submit and press certain claims which this province has upon the Dominion. This delegation will be headed by Premier Hazard, who will be accompanied probably by Hon. Geo. E. Hughes, Mr. John Agnew and others who constitute the committee which was appointed in the house last session to prepare a statement. Just before the house adjourned last week, Premier Hazard submitted a report of the committee. Their work was not completed but up to that time the claims so far as considered were as follows:

1. The Island's share in the Halifax Fishery Award, estimated at $1,250,000 with accrued interest. The damages had arisen before Confederation, the award being paid after Confederation and going into Canada's hands. The Dominion Government claimed to hold it as trustees for the provinces affected, and the sum supposed to represent the net interest is distributed in bounty, but the lion's share has been secured by Nova Scotia. The fishery award claim has now been before the provincial legislature for a number of years. Some members are urging that this province should unite with others interested, and thus, acting on the principle that union is strength, succeed in receiving its recognition by the Dominion Government. Others, as pointed out that the Island's case is different from that of the other provinces and as the bulk of the evidence on which the award was made was taken from the Island, where the greatest catches were made by the Americans, this province should press its claim itself. However, both parties in the house are agreed that we have a strong and valid claim.

2. Claim two is for damages on account of the non-fulfillment of the terms of union, with respect to winter communication. The settlement under this head was made in 1901, when $35,000 a year for all time to come was added to our subsidy as a result of the representations of the delegates sent by the Liberal Government. The claim since 1901, amounting to $300,000, will now be presented.

3. The third claim is based on the ground that we are entitled to consideration from the Dominion government on account of the public domain which has been alienated to the other provinces to the exclusion of the Island. At present an estimate is not possible, but steps will be taken to eventually obtain one. It is contended that every province has a partnership share in these lands, and in the Island's case the Dominion government has helped to build the railways and highways running through them and shared in the cost if expenditure incurred on account of the public domain which has been alienated to the other provinces to the exclusion of the Island. At present an estimate is not possible, but steps will be taken to eventually obtain one. It is contended that every province has a partnership share in these lands, and in the Island's case the Dominion government has helped to build the railways and highways running through them and shared in the cost if expenditure incurred on account of the public domain which has been alienated to the other provinces to the exclusion of the Island.

4. The fourth claim is of our per capita subsidy from the Dominion on account of the difference between the estimated and actual debt of Canada at the time we entered Confederation, including the expenditure upon certain public works and undertakings, and the amount actually expended on such works. The difference between the estimated and actual debt of Canada was $176,422,000. The delegates will claim the Dominion share of per capita allowance, owing to the largely increased expenditure. The Island's right of compensation was first recognized by the Dominion some years ago, when it received an increase in subsidy of $20,000 a year on this head.

5. It is also claimed that the Island is equitably entitled to be paid the amount charged against this province of $314,715 for the construction of the Prince Edward Island Railway, the other provinces having had railways constructed by the Dominion which, at the time we entered Confederation, had not been contemplated. A statement has been prepared showing the difference between the amount of interest which this sum would have earned for the province, had the Dominion government assumed the debt, instead of the province, and the deficits which had been contrasted on the Island Railway. The amount of interest is $5,400,786. The deficits were $2,499,759, leaving a balance of $2,901,027.

6. The sixth claim is for the cost of maintaining the penitentiary prisoners since last settlement, estimated at $3,086.

7. The seventh is administration of criminal justice under the criminal laws of Canada, $56,145,095.

8. There are other claims on account of the province of the province, estimated at $61,740.04, besides the fees received and applied to the payments in the judges' salaries.

WOMAN'S HAT MAY COST HIM HIS EYE

Mayor of Indianapolis Severely Hurt by Fashionable Lid

INDIANAPOLIS, April 5.—An up to the minute hat worn by a well-dressed woman almost cost Mayor Bookwalter an eye this morning. The mayor's right eye is injured seriously and probably will require the aid of a specialist for some time.

The mayor was a passenger on a southbound Illinois street car, on his way to his office. At Illinois and Washington streets Mr. Bookwalter stepped aside to allow the woman to alight. As Mr. Bookwalter stepped from the car the woman turned her head and the steel point of a feather in the headgear entered the corner of the mayor's right eye. Almost blinded and suffering intense pain the mayor sought an eye specialist.

The woman stopped to apologize, but the point of the offending feather still came from the hat. Mr. Bookwalter described the hat as of correct proportions.

NAPLES, April 5.—Ex-President Roosevelt spent several hours in Naples today, and during that time was given many evidences of his personal popularity with the Italian people and of the admiration which they have for his distinguished services to his country.

The steamer Hamburg, on which Mr. Roosevelt was a passenger, came in soon after noon, was greeted on her way to her anchorage with the blowing of whistles, the fluttering of many flags and the playing of bands. Italian warships in the harbor, steamers of various nationalities, private yachts and craft of all kinds, drove in bunting and signal flags from stem to stern, added to the picturesque scene which Mr. Roosevelt himself characterized as magnificent.

MONTRÉAL, April 5.—The management of the hospital for the incurables today received Lord Strathcona's check for ten thousand dollars. The institution is one of the pet projects of Archbishop Bruchet and does a great work.

BASE FALSEHOOD SAYS MCSWEENEY

Denies Interview With Mr. Robinson

Annual Meeting of Sons of Temperance — Golf Club Officers

MONCTON, N. B., April 5.—George McSweeney, proprietor of the Brunswick Hotel, when shown the remarks made by Rev. W. R. Robinson at St. John Sunday in reference to himself, said that Mr. Robinson never had an interview with him before or since the Scott Act election in reference to the matter spoken of by Mr. Robinson. He characterized the minister's remarks as base falsehoods. It would be absurd for him to say he had a bonded warehouse in his cellar, as the law did not permit it, and when he hadn't such a thing in his cellar, Mr. Robinson's alleged interview with him, Mr. McSweeney says, is wholly without foundation, and he was surprised at him making such a statement.

The annual meeting of the Westmorland and Albert district division, Sons of Temperance, was held here this afternoon with quite a number of outside delegates present. Routine business occupied the attention of the division. The following officers elected were installed by G. W. P. E. S. Hennigar, St. John; Dist. D. W. P. M. J. Steves, Moncton; D. W. A. Mrs. J. W. Crandall, Moncton; Dist. S. S. C. Alward, Moncton; Dist. Treat, Ashley George, Sackville; Dist. Chap. Rev. C. Flemming, Pettitcoddy, Con. D. McInnon, Scotch Settlement; Sentinel, F. G. Moore, Hopewell Hill; G. W. P. Hennigar in the evening publicly installed officers of Moncton division.

At the annual meeting of Moncton Gold Club, held tonight, officers were elected for ensuing year. Hon. president, E. Tiffin; president, Dr. O. J. McCully; vice-president, J. Edward; secretary, treasurer, J. W. H. Roberts; managing committee, G. K. Joughins, D. A. Storey, R. W. Simpson, G. W. Maddison, A. E. Wilkinson.

PRINZ OSKAR IS A SPLENDID STEAMER

The Hamburg Canadian liner Prinz Oskar in command of Captain Fullen, arriving at the port yesterday morning at ten from Rotterdam, and docked at No. 4 berth. When the big liner came in about four hundred people were present on the wharf to meet her.

The Prinz Oskar left Rotterdam on March 22, and crossed the Atlantic by the southern course. She had clear weather passing the banks and saw no ice. Coming up the bay the steamer was in the teeth of a blinding snow and hail storm.

The wind blew a hurricane and the seas ran mountains high and washed her decks from stem to stern, but did no damage.

The steamer brought about 402 passengers and 50 tons of general cargo. The passengers were mostly Russians, Austrians and Poles. Twenty-eight are bound for U. S. A. and the remainder are going to the United States and South America to River Plate.

Last year the steamer was laid up from March, 1908, to March, 1909. She is 3,777 tons net register, and 4,026 tons gross with accommodation to carry 210 cabin and 1,300 steerage passengers. Her signal letters are M. V. L. R. She is equipped with twin screws and has three large decks. Her speed is thirteen knots. The Prinz Oskar is a sister ship of the Prinz Adelbert. The steamer on the steamer is situated at No. 4 berth. Large, square windows on both sides give good light and fresh air. The saloon is done in maple, painted green with gold trimmings, some of the panels are done in pink and a number of beautiful oil paintings ornament the walls. The state rooms are provided with wardrobes and fitted with metallic beds and folding lavatories.

The smoking room is large and airy. It is finished in dark checked silk. The room is tastefully decorated with some handsome German paintings. The Prinz Oskar will be equipped with wireless on her next voyage here.

The passengers, who are a fine looking class of people, were landed this morning. They will be forwarded west by two special trains this afternoon.

GREELEY DODGED LINCOLN.

President Lincoln, having been often and severely arraigned in the New York Tribune for what Mr. Greeley considered his slowness in prosecuting the war had said: "If he (Greeley) objects to my policy, I shall be glad to have him state to me his views freely and fully. I shall adopt his if I can. If I cannot, I will at least tell him why. He and I should stand together."

"If I were to go," said Greeley when the words were repeated to him, "he would simply twist me around his fingers, as he always does."

"Lincoln's smile would melt me in a minute," he said on another occasion when again urged to see the president and have a talk with him. "He is a wonderful man — wonderful! I can never harbor a thought against him except when I keep away from him."

GHOST MADE HER TELL OF MURDER

Mother of Delorey Makes Statement

DEAD GIRL SEEN

Spirit of Annie Mullins Haunted Woman Until She Wrote Police

BOSTON, April 5.—Mrs. Francis Delorey, mother of the Antigonish, N. S., lad under arrest here for murdering Annie Mullins, told a reporter this afternoon that the spirit of the slain girl prompted her to tell the police about Delorey's story of the ghost of the girl implicating one of her husband's people. She said the spirit of the murdered girl haunted her team and she was certain that there would have been no rest for her until she communicated with the police.

"I had made up my mind not to speak of this but perhaps it is better that I should do so, for I think that you will understand me. For several weeks I have felt at various times a hand upon my shoulder and each time the words have been put into my mind: 'Why don't you write to the police?'"

"I thought the first time that some body was actually behind me, but now I am sure that I am not alone. I am sure on my shoulder for some time. Something kept tormenting me until finally I spoke to my husband and told him that I must do something to shake the feeling off. I urged him to see the police but he could not believe that Peter was implicated. As bad as this he could not love himself to murder," he said and I let the matter drop, though I was growing sick under it."

"Finally I made up my mind to write the letter, but there were so many other things to do that I failed to do it. I was in the barn on the following morning when the mysterious hand suddenly rested on my shoulder and I heard the words: 'Why didn't you write that letter last night?' I went back to the house and wrote it. You know the result, the police came here at once and confirmed what I suspected. From that day I was no longer troubled. The spirit of Annie Mullins no longer came to me to ask for justice."

This statement in itself might be credited to a hysterical woman, but Mrs. Delorey discussed this fact calmly. It is not a spiritualist and I do not believe in spirits, but there are some things that only God can explain." She continued: "Let me give you an illustration. Mrs. Delorey's husband, a well-known merchant, was killed many years ago in Boston. On the day that he left me I warned him that he was about to meet with an accident and told him that I had seen him the night before lying dead on a sidewalk in Boston. He laughed at me, but he was killed the day just as I had seen in my vision."

BABY MEETS AWFUL DEATH

Body Found on Railway Track Minus One Arm

REGINA, Sask., April 5.—The two-year-old baby girl of Albert Krenke, of Southey, met an awful death late Saturday night and the circumstances surrounding the case are such as to warrant an investigation. It appears that Mrs. Krenke was about two blocks away from home staying with a sick sister-in-law Saturday night, and her husband put the two-year-old baby to bed about nine o'clock. The little child in charge of the older sister and went out to get a shave. About midnight he returned with his wife and found the little girl gone. Search was immediately instituted and the whole town turned out to help. After some hours they came across the body of the child on the tracks with the arm cut off and the body horribly mangled. A train had evidently struck the infant and caused instant death.

THE EXPERIENCED SWINE.

The crowd around the postoffice stove, after exhausting the possibilities of politics, local and national, had been discussing the alleged lack of the truth telling instinct in Old Man Simpson. Uncle Ezra came in, and Jim Peters said:

"What do you think about it, Uncle Ezra—would you call Old Man Simpson a liar?"

"Well," answered Uncle Ezra slowly as he thoughtfully studied the ceiling, "I wouldn't go so far as to call the old man a liar, but I do know it is to be a fact that when feedin' time comes to get any response he has to have somebody else call his hogs fur him."

WORSE.

Washington Star—"March came in like a lion, didn't it?"

"No, Sir," answered the naturalist. "I never in my life saw a lion who crept at his worst could be matched with such a bad disposition."

ASSURANCE.

Washington Star—"Don't you know that no one listens to or reads your speeches?"

"Yes," answered Senator Borah; "in that way I avoid making enemies."
