Mrs. James Thompson

The death of Mrs. Jas. R. Thompson, one of Waterdown's highly respected citizens, occurred at her home here last Monday night. Mrs. Thompson was formerly Miss Diana Atkins, of Rockton, and was 62 years of age. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, William A., and one daughter, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, both of this village.

The funeral took place Thursday afternoon from her late home, Main street, to Waterdown cemetery, Rev. Dr. Irwin officiating. The pallbearers were Chas. Galivan, W. S. Griffin, J. C. Langford, E. Blagden, Geo. Horning and Richard Smith.

Locals

Mrs. I. Baker entertained the Kings Daughters at her home last Monday evening.

The Devotional meeting of the Ladies' Adult Bible class will meet with Mrs. Wm. Langton on Tuesday evening December 9th.

Miss Loraine Duncan entertained a number of her friends Wednesday evening, prior to taking a training course at the Hamilton General hospital.

On Sunday, December 7th, Mr. T. E. Plewman, a missionary on furlough from China, will speak morning and evening at the Methodist church. Mr. Plewman is a layman devoting his life to the work of Missions.

Public School Bazaar

The pupils of the Public School are holding a Bazaar at the school on Friday, December 12th at 2 p. m. A large number of articles of every kind has been prepared for sale by the children. The girls have made a great variety of useful articles such as aprons, pillowcases, luncheon sets towels and handkerchiefs. The weaving class has prepared trays, fruit and sandwich baskets, waste paper baskets, flower baskets, card trays, jardinières, mats, vases and window boxes. The manual training class have for sale trays, tabourets, book racks, tie racks, tea-pot stands, pen and pencil holders, electric lamps candlesticks, match boxes, pen and ink stands, bread boards and sewing stands.

The committee in charge of pricing these articles are doing their work in such a manner that every article will be offered at a very reasonable price. There will also be home-made baking and candy for sale.

The proceeds will be used by the pupils in their activities and they will appreciate your co-operation and sympathy.

Flamboro Centre

On Tuesday evening an enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Waterdown, when about forty members of the Flamboro Centre Baptist Choir and congregation met in the form of a surprise party for Mrs. Anderson, their organist. The earlier part of the evening was spent in games and music. Rev. Sydney Lawrence read a fitting address on behalf of the choir and congregation, thanking Mrs. Anderson for her faithful services rendered to the church in the past, and presented her with a beautiful silver casserole. Refreshments completed the evening's program.

The Flamboro Centre Baptist Choir has been asked to render music at the Mountsbury Anniversary Services Sunday evening, December 7.

Mr. George Wetherelt is holding an auction sale of farm stock and implements on Wednesday, the 12th.

Mrs. E. Scott has been spending a few days with friends in Hamilton.

The school children are preparing a Christmas Concert under the direction of Miss F. Buzza.

W. C. LANGFORD Waterdown

E. L. Richardson, manager of the Calgary Stampede of 1923, held under the patronage of the Prince of Wales and Governor-General Byng, announces that, owing to the enormous success of the great rodeo July 9-14 it will be staged annually instead of at intervals of several years, as heretofore. The recent Stampede was attended by 137,800 people.

Only once in the history of Canada was the gold production record set in 1922 exceeded, and that was in 1900, when the Yukon placers reached the peak of their yield. During 1922, 1,263,364 ounces of gold were mined in the Dominion. The value is set at $26,116,050, an increase of 36% over the previous year's figures. In 1900, 1,350,057 ounces of gold were mined and the value was $27,908,153.

Canada's trade is climbing ahead. Total trade in the three months ending June was $462,544,438, an increase of $110,841,056 over the corresponding three months of last year. For June alone total trade was $179,720,516, an increase of $44,944,732 over last year. Domestic exports in the three months increased approximately $50,000,000 and imports approximately $61,000,000.
