

Hackettstown, N. J., April 20, 1902. "FORCE" FOOD CO., Buffalo, N. Y.

Gentlemen,—I took heme a package of "FORCE" yesterday and the children were anxious to try it for supper. We found it suited our palates and our little two-year-old girl cried for the second dish. The first thing this morning on reaching the breakfast table, she, in her baby English, made us understand that she wanted "FORCE" for her breakfast. We are all in love with it, but I am fearful you have get me into a "peck of trouble," as the children want "FORCE" for dinner and supper as well as breakfast.

Yours very truly, ----Name furnished on application.

ENGLISHMAN AND TURK.

How the Former Obtained Some Cash Owed by the Latter.

An Englishman has just had a very curious experience, says the London Telegraph. He had lent a Turk some money, but the man was unable to pay and on his deathbed laid a particular charge on his wife and children to meet the debt. The eldest son was making arrangements accordingly, but also died, and he, too, begged his family to pay the money as soon as they could.

One day the Englishman received a visit from a member of the family, who said that there were now four members of it left, and they were ready to pay, but one of the daughters refused to subscribe her share, declaring that the money was never really lent. The others, however, wished to settle the matter, and if the Englishman would come to the house it would be arranged. "But," the Turk added, "if you see there is any difficulty just say that you leave it to be settled in the next world!"

Accordingly the Englishman went to the house at the appointed time and met the family in the presence of a mollah, the ladies being behind a screen. The mollah began by asking if he had truly lent the money, how much it was and if he would take any less. One of the women behind kept saying it was all a fraud. The Englishman then declared that he had lent the money, that he had not asked for it, that they had told him to come and get it and if they did not want to pay it he would leave the matter to be settled in the next world.

There was dead silence for a few moments, and then the women called their brother, and each paid her share without a word. It seems the prospect of meeting the father in the other world without having carried out his wishes was too serious a thing to face.

THE COOKBOOK.

In baking bread it is better to overdo rather than underdo the work. To make a good digestible pie crust use cream instead of lard, and it will be light and healthful.

If there is not batter enough to fill the gem pan, put cold water in the empty space before setting the pan in

The rich cheeses, which have the largest percentage of fat, are those which blend well with bread in sandwiches or with macaroni or rice.

For a quick cake beat until thick four eggs. Add four tablespoonfuls of sugar, haif a cup of flour, a little cinnamon and lemon rind. Beat well and spread on a baking pan. Bake in quick oven and cut at once.

Sweet potatoes are much richer twice cooked. Baked or boiled merely, this vegetable is good, but when the baking or boiling is followed by a subsequent cooking in the pan or in the oven they are far better.

A fine cheese pudding is made by grating five ounces of bread and three of cheese. Warm two ounces of butter in a quarter of a pint of fresh milk and mix thoroughly. Add two well beaten eggs, salt and bake half an hour.

Death In Their Work. Gilders, photographers and those who handle the hydric and potassic cyanides are liable to suffer from chronic poisoning by hydrocyanic acid. They bave headache, giddiness, noises in the ear, difficult respiration, pain over the heart, loss of appetite-in short, show all the evidences of mild poisoning. Zinc workers, too, suffer. Zinc is used as a pigment in calico printing, in discoloring glass, in polishing optical glasses and in-making artificial meerschaum pipes.

So men die in harness in these and a hundred other occupations, killed by the very air they breathe, and other men step into their shoes.

The European Plan. Some queer customers are seen at New York hotels. An old farmer from the country tells how he got ahead of one of the clerks. "I walked in," he says, "asked the young man at the desk, 'What are your prices?' 'American or European? he asked me. Now I wasn't going to tell where I was from until I had seen the lay of the land. 'What difference does that make?' says I. 'If American,' he answered, 'it's $4 per day; if European, $1.50.' I thought a moment, and then an idea struck me how to get ahead of him. I walked up boldly and registered from London."

"It is now a year past sincé I had severe attack of nervous prostration caused by chronic dyspepsia, and I could not sleep at night. This condition of sleeplessness brought on delirium. I was attended by four of the best doctors, and took a great quantity of medicine, but all failed to do me any good. I thought I would try your Paine's Celery Compound. After I had used four botiles the nervousness and lyspepsia left me, and I have done done more work since than for years past. I now enjoy excellent health and consider myself completely cured." A costume of gray veiling is shown in the cut. Both waist and skirt are laid in wide bias tucks. The skirt has three tucked ruffles. The waist is collarless and is trimmed with a yoke and undersleeves of white chiffon. Bands of white silk applique also aid in trimming the waist and skirt. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FANCY COLLARS AND TIES. Sille Mull Fichus, Wash Collars and Stocks.

Bertha collars of embroidered batiste appear on very many of the new gowns. Another fashionable mode for linen dresses shows a short, oddly shaped bolero with stole ends of lace and edged around the sides with narrow bands of stitched linen. The boiero is worn over a tucked blouse of embroidered batiste. Pretty little silk mull fichus are edged with flower passementerie.

Thin white wash goods and net make equally effective fichus. A flower bordered fichu is as dainty a piece of apparel as one could wish for. In the wash ties and neckbands fashion still clings to the pique stocks of

BRILLIANT SUCCESS AT "THE PINES"

The results of the recent Departmental Examinations demonstrate most fully the excellent character of the instruction given by the ladies of the Ursuline Academy, Chatham. These ladies conduct the following schools: the Ursuline Academy, Chatham; St. Joseph Separate School, Chatham; Tecumseh Separate School and Tilbury Separate School. At the High School Entrance 7 wrote from the Academy and all were successful, 20 from St. Joseph, 19 successful; 4 from Tecumseh, all successful; 2 from Tilbury, both successful, or a total of 32 successful out of 34, being 97 successful. In the examinations conducted by the Toronto Conservatory of Music the success of the ladies trained at the Academy could not have been more brilliant. Of the ten who tried the practical examination, "Piano," all passed, two receiving first class honors and eight honors. Of the seven taking the theoretical examination all were successful, four taking honors. The papers were set by the Toronto Conservatory of Music, of which the Academy is now a local centre; and the practical examina-tions were conducted by Prof. J. D.

A. Tripp, of the Conservatory.

These results speak most forcibly of the thorough and practical character of the education given by the Ursuline ladies. It is an honor to the city of Chatham to have within its bounds an institution so capably
