Marathon of 1906, has signified his intention of entering, if the C. A. A. grants his application for an amateur card.

DAVIS IN CHARGE.

Longboat Now Training With His Discoverer.

Toronto, March 24.—Mike Flanagan has been unable to devote the necessary time to the training of Longboat, and with the consent of the latter and his manager, has turned the champion over to Bill Davis, who came down from Hamilton a day or two ago.

Longboat ran his first big race under Davis, and won it from a big field of starters in the round-the-bay race at Hamilton. Since that time Longboat has had a liking for his fellow-reddish trainer and works hard for him. Some smart work will be put in on the roads hereabouts for the remainder of the present week, after which the champion and his trainer will go to New York for a few days' work on the track at the Polo Grounds, where the Marathon Derby will be run a week from Saturday.

GEORGE BONHAG'S RECORDS.—With eight victories to his credit, all earned within a couple of months, George V. Bonhag, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, stands today as one of the most remarkable runners developed in many years. The performance of Bonhag in the seven-mile race at New York Saturday night, when he smashed four records, was one of the most brilliant ever seen in that city. In point of interest it lay away over the exploit of Ralph Rose last year, who toppled over six shot-pulling records in one day.

Bonhag now holds the following records:

Two miles—9m. 27.4-5s.; old record, 9m. 28.3-4s.
Three miles—14m. 34.4-5s.; old record, 14m. 35s.
Four miles—19m. 43.3-5s.; old record, 19m. 43.3-5s.
Five miles—24m. 29.2-5s.; old record, 25m. 19.2-3s.
Five and one-half miles—28m. 1s.; old record, 28m. 40s.
Six miles—30m. 42s.; old record, 30m. 43s.
Six and one-half miles—33m. 20.1-5s.; old record, 33m. 20.1-5s.
Seven miles—35m. 50.3-5s.; old record, 35m. 50s.

According to a recent rule of the A. A. U., Bonhag would have to finish first at the tape to get the seven-mile mark. The other records were already his. That was why Bonhag, of the N. Y. A. C., allowed him to get home ahead—a very generous act of a rival champion—and one of those sportsmanlike incidents in amateur contests that makes every fair-minded man applaud.

RACING APPEAL.

What Will Happen to Kentucky Turf?

Lexington, Ky., March 24.—The opinion of Judge Harbeson, given at Covington yesterday, to the effect that the law creating the State Racing Commission is unconstitutional, is not accepted as conclusive by a majority of breeders and horsemen in the Blue Grass regions. The general impression here is that the Court of Appeals will reverse Judge Harbeson's decision, just as the United States Circuit Court reversed Judge Evans, of the United States District Court at Louisville in 1906, when the Cella interests sought an injunction against the commission because it would not grant certain dates to Douglas Park, and attacked the constitutionality of the act on the ground that it was in violation of the sixth section, first article, of the Federal constitution and fourteenth amendment thereto.

It is safe to say that the decision will be made from the Court of Appeals by May 1, and until then the racing situation in Kentucky will remain practically unchanged. Members of the State Racing Commission and their attorneys in this case have been given leave until the Court of Appeals will advance the case on docket and that a decision will be rendered in April. The Court of Appeals will adjourn at the end of the week, sitting again beginning April 5.

RACING IN ENGLAND.

London, March 24.—The result of the Lincoln handicap was: Duke of Sparta, 20 to 1, won; Arranmore, 15 to 2, 2nd; Longcroft, 20 to 1, 3rd. Those who also ran were Sutor, Sir Archibald Roseate, Dawn, Kaffir, Chief, Mercutio, Wise Mason, Raeberry, Borax, Teneraire, Sagamore, Summer, Sir Thor, Indian, Rumor, Woodhall, Velvet, General Stossel, Quality Street, Gerbena, Idomeus, Point of View.

The distance is one mile. The odds on Sutor were 100 to 6, and on Mercutio 100 to 9.

WILL SLOAN GET LICENSE?

London, March 24.—Will Tod Sloan, the American jockey who was ruled out of the English turf, get a license? Is the interesting question of moment in racing circles. Two lists of jockeys have already been given out by the Jockey Club, but in neither does Sloan's name appear. Sloan, who has been living quietly in London during the winter, has managed to extinguish himself, so far as publicity is concerned, in a remarkable manner. Sloan felt certain all along that his application for license would be granted, and, although the non-appearance of his name in the final list has been a bitter disappointment, he is still confident he will ride here.

SAYS CHAMBERLAIN COULD PITCH WITH BOTH HANDS.

Mobile, March 24.—"No pitcher ever lived who could serve balls effectively to the batters either left or right handed."

This is the declaration of veteran "Cy" Young, who, in his time, has seen as many fingers come and go as anybody.

In a fanning season recently Young was asked if any of the old time pitchers could dish up the ball either way.

"Yes," he replied: "I have seen a few pitchers who claimed they could use either arm in throwing the ball, but I never saw one who could do it pointment, he is still confident he will ride here.

TROTTERS FOR EUROPE.

New York, March 24.—Announcement was made today by C. K. G. Billings, the well-known trotting horse owner, that on April 3 he would ship his entire stable of light harness horses to Europe for a two months' tour of exhibition.

The principal tracks of Germany, Austria and Russia will be visited. None of the horses will compete for purses abroad.

Among the horses now in Mr. Billings' stable in Cleveland are Lon Dillon, 1:58½, the world's champion trotter; W. J. Lewis, 2:06¼; Tempus Fugit, 2:07¾; Fleming Boy, 2:07½; Turley, 2:07¾; Bertha Mae, 2:08, and Delight, 2:08¼.

CHARLIE CONKLE, Who will meet Al. Ackerman, of Lima, Ohio, on Saturday for the welter-weight wrestling championship of America.

TORONTO ZINGARI FOR QUAKER CITY

DRIVING CLUB TO HOLD A HORSE SHOW.

The annual meeting of the Hamilton Driving Club was held at the Waldorf Hotel last night, and it was largely attended. The following officers were elected for the year 1909:

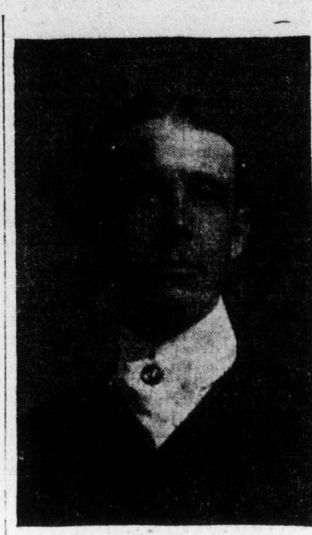

Honorary President—A. G. Bain.
President—D. S. Gillies.
Vice-President—Murray Neil.
Secretary-Treasurer—M. S. M. Long.
Assistant Secretary-Treasurer—E. Small.

Directors—Thos. Coughlin, Jas. Gordon, Andrew Baxter, R. Simpson, J. L. Martin, W. J. Ford, Geo. Truman.

The annual statement was presented, and showed that the season just passed had been most successful. The matinees were well attended, the races well contested, and there was a keen rivalry among the horsemen. The balance sheet showed that after all expenses had been paid there was a surplus on hand of $25.77.

The matinees will be held as usual this year, but they will be held in connection with the Maple Leaf Amusement Park, which has leased the James' track. There will be better accommodation for the public this year, as they are sparing no expense in improving the track and grounds and adding to the grand stand.

A special committee has been appointed in regard to holding an open air horse show at the park.

D. S. GILLIES, Who has been re-elected President of the Hamilton Driving Club.

From the Scrap Heap

New York, March 24.—Packer McFarland, the Chicago lightweight, who wants to fight Battling Nelson for the world's title, defeated Leach Cross, the East Side boxer, in a slashing ten-round bout at the Fairmont A. C. to-night.

McFarland had his man beaten on eleven of all stages of the battle. Cross tried repeatedly to get Leach's hands swinging for the jaw, but the Chicago man either blocked them or skipped out of the way with great footwork. McFarland worked his left with much force and closed Cross's left eye, but Leach drew first blood from Packer's nose with a hard wallop in the third round.

While Cross was full of fight all the way he was cleverly outpointed, for McFarland landed the greater number of clean blows and also did the bulk of the work. Cross was simply outclassed.

New York, March 24.—In a one-sided ten-round bout before the Bedford A. C., Brooklyn, last night, featherweight champion Abe Attell easily demonstrated his superiority over Frankie Neil, the former bantam champion of California. Attell gave Neil one of the fiercest drubbings of the latter's career, and that the contest lasted as long as it did was due chiefly to Neil's grit and ability to take punishment.

Neil did not land a telling blow throughout the fight, and his face was a mass of cuts and bruises at the finish.

Tommy O'Brien, who defeated Wall last week in four rounds, will hook up next Saturday night with Jack Kelley, of the National A. C. They are to go six rounds. Burns Keetley will meet Artie Fair at the same time.

Boston, Mass., March 24.—James J. Jeffries was seen at his hotel last night and informed of the offer of Chattanooga capitalists for an eight-round bout with Jack Johnson. Jeffries' comment was brief. He said:

"I thank the gentlemen from Tennessee for their generous offer, but I must still maintain my former stand. I won't fight until I get into the right shape to deliver the goods."

London, March 24.—Owen Moran, of Boston, got the decision over Tommy Murphy, of New York, at the end of a fast twelve-round bout at the Armory A. A. last night.

Tommy did not like the decision.

Troy, March 24.—Cy Smith, of Jersey City, had the better of Johnny Marto, of New York, in a ten-round go at the Star Athletic Club here last night.

New York, March 24.—In local sporting circles last night, the Ketchel-O'Brien bout, which will be decided at the National A. C. in east 84th street on Friday night, was the chief topic. So far there has been little or no betting, for the reason that Ketchel has never been seen here before, while O'Brien's ring record has not been overlooked. Ketchel, however, if only for the reason that the plucky middle-weight champion is willing to mix it up with Jack Johnson.

But it may be said that if Ketchel stops O'Brien or beats him decisively he will have to accept a challenge from Sam Langford to box before the National A. C. members or stand convicted of cowardice. Ketchel cannot draw the color line on Langford with consistency after his attempt to get a match with Johnson. Neither can he make any impossible weight conditions because Langford is ready to fight him at 158 pounds ring-side or at catch weights.

Ketchel will receive a boom if he trims O'Brien, therefore, but he'll be accused of knocking himself off if he refuses to mix it up with Langford.

O'Brien put in another hard day's work at Sheepshead Bay to-day, and declared that he would win over Ketchel on scientific points.

Although he accepted Hugh McIntosh's offer of $50,000 to fight Jeffries, Johnson has also expressed a willingness to sign up with several Chattanooga promoters who say they will hang up $100,000 for an eight-round bout between the negro and the boomer.

In other words, Johnson knows that he can bluff and flourish to his heart's content regarding the proposed mill with Jeffries just so long as the latter remains silent.

Jeffries, who is in Boston, still refuses to say whether he will fight the big negro or not, but he is under so much pressure that something may break loose very soon.

Toronto, March 24.—Jack Johnson, the colored champion, will appear at the Star Theatre the week of April 12, when he will be seen in a boxing bout.

Toronto, March 22.—It is not unlikely that the Canadian public will have an opportunity of watching a bout between James J. Jeffries and his sparring partner, Sam Berger. Under the auspices of William Morris, an arrangement is being made to arrange for an exhibition bout in several Canadian cities.

Jeffries, who is in Boston, still refuses to say whether he will fight the big negro or not, but he is under so much pressure that something may break loose very soon.

Toronto, March 24.—The yacht Aileen II, has been bought by A. J. Phillips and James Watt and will be sailed under R. C. B. C. colors the coming season.

A meeting of St. Luke's soccer football team will be held in the school room to-morrow night at 8 o'clock sharp. The following players are requested to attend: T. Dickie, J. Hamer, W. Trotter, L. Priedard, T. Dickson, C. Payne, L. Lawson, W. Powell, B. Coleman, B. Hawker, H. Sweeney, C. Smith, G. Thompson, Davis, R. Scosson.

London, March 24.—The Oxford cricket, which is now in training for the Varsity boat race, this afternoon made the full course, from Putney to Mortlake, in the phenomenal and record time of 18 minutes 21 seconds. The best previous time was 18 minutes 47 seconds.

The date of the Canadian regatta has not yet been selected, but it will in all probability be the week preceding the national regatta at Detroit on August 6 and 7.

Pinehurst, N. C., March 23.—The scores in the annual United States Revolver Association State championship (20 yards) pistol shoot were announced to-day. E. E. Partridge, of Mingo Springs, Me., winning first with a total of 439. Dr. C. Kingsley Field, of London, Eng., was second with a score of 403, and L. C. Hopkins, of Brooklyn, third with 373.

London, March 24.—On Saturday night a stranger stopped at the Sadler Hotel, near the market, tied up his horse, exchanged a few words and started up town. He had sold three bags of clover seed, worth $15 a bag. Three empty bags and a full one were found in the rig, which, with the horse, is still at the hotel. The man has not been seen since, and the police are searching for him. The bags were marked "M. Cole."

The Dominion Government will take no action at the present session in regard to the tariff questions raised by the revision in the United States.

Chairman Seneca Payne says the advocates of a high tariff on lumber are chiefly stumpage speculators.

RABBI LEVY TO FIRESIDE.

Magnificent Address by Eminent Speaker From Pittsburg.

Optimism the Keynote of Present-Day Progress.

Centenary Young Men Give Large Audience a Treat.

Invariably the chief product of Pittsburg is considered to be iron and steel, but it also has another and larger product, namely brains, and last night there was a very fine specimen in Hamilton of the last-named product in the person of Dr. J. Leonard Levy, of Pittsburg, Jewish Rabbi of that city, who spoke in Centenary school-room to an audience which filled the place, under the auspices of the Men's Fireside Club.

Rev. R. Whiting introduced the speaker and then commenced such a discourse that will prove those who were present with an illuminating supply of ammunition for a very long time. "Marching On" was the title of Dr. Levy's speech. In his opening remarks he carried the audience back to ancient Egypt, where, with him as a guide, museums were visited and numerous antiquities were examined, beautiful statuary stood out, all proving that Egypt was the mother of ancient civilization. Early the audience began to see 'twas optimism they were to be treated to, and it began to trickle slowly, and then poured in a gentle shower until, finally, there fell torrents of beautiful optimism, laying every particle of the dust of pessimism and washing it completely away and still it kept marching on, comparing the past of our grandmothers and great-grandmothers with the present, showing the march of civilization, showing the fallacy of entertaining the thought that the past was better than the present; comparing the cities of ancient times with their inconveniences to the cities of the present with the wonderful inventions of the present; then pointing out the difficulty of realizing the march of progress because its path was never straight, never easy or in a direct line, but there yielding a point, then falling and dying. Martyrs had to die, reformers had to be executed; leaders led to the scaffold, the onward march, and whole nations would have to wear crowns of thorns before hospitable relations would be given to the new truth, but to men who realize that God has placed on them the duty to help on the forward march, Work must be done, and men who feel intellectually capable, and whole nations would have to wear crowns of thorns before hospitable relations would be given to the new truth, but to men who realize that God has placed on them the duty to help on the forward march, Work must be done, and men who
