M. C. CAMERON, Q. C.
"The Boodle Brigade Must Go."

RIEL'S PUNISHMENT.

The Tory press still continues to misrepresent the position of the Liberal leader and such men as Mr. Cameron, on the question of the punishment of Riel. Mr. Blake, Mr. Cameron and those who voted with them, acted along the line of the verdict of the jury who tried Riel. They took the ground that when the jury recommended the prisoner to mercy they meant it. It was surely no more wrong for them to advise that recommendation of the prisoner to mercy than it was for the jury, cognizant of all the evidence, to recommend him to mercy.

It was the practice of Mr. Blake, when Minister of Justice, to have the sentences of a prisoner convicted of capital crimes commuted if the jury recommended the prisoner to mercy. And why should he not act in that same spirit when a man not charged with murder, but found guilty of treason felony, was unanimously recommended to mercy by the jury who tried him? Mr. Blake took his stand with the jury; to condemn him is to condemn the jury. It was in the light of these facts that Mr. Blake said:—"I saw that I could not honestly vote in favor of any decision but that the sentence of execution ought to have been commuted—not that the man should have been pardoned, as so many have wrongly declared. I said that the man was guilty."

The jury did not sentence Riel. They did not want the utmost punishment the law could give to be meted out to the wretched man. They were in favor of the sentence being commuted. And because of their stand, Messrs. Blake and Cameron favored a commutation of Riel's sentence, not a pardon or a release.

THE OFFICIAL copies of Hansard prove that Mr. Cameron was right on Wednesday night.

MR. PORTER is already learning that the official report—the genuine Hansard—was "loaded up the other way."

WHEN the Orange Sentinel abuses Mr. Cameron, and "commends" him to the "loyalists" of this constituency, it forgets that its articles are as two edged swords. The people of Ashfield are just as loyal as are the Orangemen, but their loyalty is not of the sort that jumps every time a grand master pulls the string.

The official organ of the Orange party has given special instructions to the "loyalists" of the riding regarding M. C. Cameron. One of the crimes it lays to the charge of Mr. Cameron is that he opposed the Orange bill. Why didn't the Bill pass in the Tory House of Commons, even when Bro. Sir John A. Macdonald voted for it? Why?

THE Star has once more placed its local candidates name over its editorial column, and speaks of Robert Porter as being "Honest, intelligent and true." Since the nomination of Robert Porter by the Tory convention we have been wondering why he was selected. The recent Local election where he endeavored to carry Dr. Taylor through the contest showed that he was not as strong a man on the platform as his friends vainly imagined, and the overwhelming defeat of his protegee was a practical "snowing under" for Robert Porter. After reading the Tory announcement, however, our eyes have been opened to the reasons that impelled the Tory convention to go to Simcoe and select Robert Porter to contest West Huron. The Star has vouchsafed the answer: Robert Porter is "Honest, Intelligent and True." But in this answer a little hard upon the Tory politicians residing in the riding. Honestly, intelligence and truth must be scarce amongst the Tories of West Huron when they select a Simcoe man, and proclaim that the possession of these qualifications should place him head and shoulders over his fellows in the Tory ranks. The Star is seeking to elevate Robert Porter by lowering the local Tories.

SURELY Mr. Porter is not so ignorant that he doesn't know that a report of the debates in the Commons is not regarded as official until the member has a chance to read and correct the first sheets struck off?

MR. CAMERON'S speech on the Indian question was copied into THE SIGNAL from the official report on May 14, 1866, and sustains Mr. Cameron's position. The statement to the contrary made on the streets by Tories yesterday is FALSE. Those who doubt can come, and see, and believe.

ROBERT PORTER, the Tory nominee, came to Goderich from his home in Simcoe, on the evening train Saturday last. He gave his fellow-passengers in the smoking-car to understand that he was quite sure of being elected. The wire pullers of the Tory convention have evidently "stuffed" the old gentleman on this point, but when the returns come in on the evening of the 22nd of February, it is quite possible Robert Porter will not be quite so sanguine, but will "be loaded up the other way."

Dr. Sutherland is not the only loyal life-long Reformer who has been disgusted and driven out of the party.

The above from the Hamilton Spectator refers to Rev. Dr. Sutherland, the eminent Methodist divine, and when the writer on the Spectator wrote it, and endeavored to create the impression that the rev. gentleman had been a Reformer, he wrote what was false, and what he knew to be false. Rev. Dr. Sutherland is now and has always been an ultra Tory. His religion and abilities are all right, but his politics are away off. The Rev. gentleman learned his trade on the old Guelph Herald and was inculcated with bad Toryism while yet a lad. The Spectator will be claiming next that Rev. Dr. Potts is a distinguished Grit.

AN effort is being made by Sir John and his party wire-pullers to show that a breach is irretrievably made between them and the Mod. To this end a campaign sheet has been started in Toronto, to last until election day, which professes to voice Conservative sentiment as it is uttered at Ottawa. The new venture is edited by Louis P. Kribs, the Mod.'s Ottawa correspondent up to Friday last, and the paper is put in type by a phalanx of Mod. compositors. The Standard will terminate its existence on election day, the compositors will resume their "frames" on the Mod. at the same time, and Mr. Kribs will betake himself, on the suspension of the campaign sheet, to his old position of Mod. correspondent at Ottawa. The scheme is patent to everybody—while the Mod. endeavors to "rope in" the self-constituted Independents, the Standard "Kribs" the straight Tories, but both grates go to the old Tory mill. And after the racket has been wrought, and the gudgeons have been caught, the Standard will fade into oblivion, and the Mod. will come up smiling—a party organ as of yore.

NOTWITHSTANDING the encomiums that were paid Hon. Alex. MacKenzie by Sir John Macdonald at London, no effort has been made by the chieftain nor any of his followers to cloke off the candidature of Alfred Boulbee against the veteran statesman in East York. But public opinion is with Mr. MacKenzie to such an extent that Alfred Boulbee has thought to be of advantage to him to write a letter to Judge Morgan asking that ornament of the Canadian bench to use his influence to get Dalton McCarthy to recommend Boulbee's candidature to Sir John Macdonald as one deserving of Governmental "assistance," and "assistance" in this case means boodle for electoral purposes. The letter was lost by Alfred Boulbee, and fell into the hands of a newspaper man, who seeing the rascality of the author's proposition, gave currency to its contents. We understand it is the intention of the present holders of the document to have it photographed and lithographed so that the public may have an idea of the easy and flowing chirography of the man who is not satisfied with a judge "Morganizing East York," but who wants the same functionary to also die in bootlegging the constituency Alfred Boulbee denies that he sent the letter to Judge Morgan, but he does not and dare not deny that he wrote it. Because a would-be assassin fires at his victim and the shot miscarries, the failure to kill does not prove the man with the gun at his shoulder innocent of crime.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

M. C. Cameron Annihilates the "Pamphlet."

He Proves His Quotations to Be True and Reliable.

The first gun of the campaign was fired in West Huron at Clinton on Friday evening last, by an expose of the pamphlet on Indian affairs, Mr. M. C. Cameron being the speaker.

It will be remembered that last session Mr. Cameron made a speech in parliament upon the management of the Indian department. Ten cabinet ministers were present, and 120 Tory members of parliament, and all the Government records were within easy reach, yet no reply was made to the terrible indictment by the member of West Huron.

The reason will at once suggest itself to every man who has a thinking apparatus upon his shoulders.

At last the Government attempted a reply. The mode adopted was by a pamphlet, written by a man named Freed, of Hamilton, a person hired by the premier to do odd jobs of the kind; and this pamphlet, containing the most brazen contradictions of some of Mr. Cameron's correct quotations of Indian agents, was scattered over the riding by the premier's party when they "did" West Huron a couple of months ago.

That pamphlet was signed by no one. Freed's name was no good, and Macdonald dare not say he wrote it. However, in order to dupe the electors, on the cover were placed the words "Issued by the Department of Indian Affairs."

It was to show up the falsehoods of that pamphlet that Mr. Cameron spoke at Clinton on Friday, and he succeeded admirably.

The speech will not bear condensation and it is too long for insertion in its entirety. It will be sent in another form to the electors of the riding, when it can be compared with the Tory's creed. Suffice it to say that Mr. Cameron, out of the Government blue books, proved his case, as he originally had made it against the Government.

He showed, by the Government's own officials that the clothing sent the Indians was often worn out in two days instead of lasting as many years. He proved his charges that agricultural implements had been allowed to rust and rot in the weeds and mud. He proved, also, that the Indians who were starving and freezing to death were offered relief, after a long neglect, by Commissioner Dewdney, in the shape of a moiety of "tea and tobacco."

Mr. Cameron offered to hand the blue books to any "doubting Thomas" to see whether or not he was correctly quoting from the Government record, but no one accepted the offer.

The Tory pamphlet has been killed by Mr. Cameron's Clinton speech. The page and year of every quotation is given by Mr. Cameron, and any person can verify the same by an appeal to the blue books.

The Government blue books can be seen at this office by any one who doubts the genuineness of the quotations made by Mr. Cameron.

Up to the present time the editor of the Star has failed to deny that he has deserted the temperance cause, and gone over bag and baggage to the advocacy of the anti-Scot platform. He can neither deny the charge nor defend the course of his journal. He is responsible for the utterances of the Star, and that journal has pulled up its principles root and branch and scattered them broadcast. What has his Conservative temperance supporters to say on this point?

MR. M. C. CAMERON'S address at Clinton, in reply to the false pamphlet, compiled by Editor Freed, of the Hamilton Spectator, and which was freely circulated in Huron during the trips of the chestnut combination through the county will repay perusal. It appears in the Toronto Globe, of Tuesday last, and bristles with proofs of Sir John's hired man's falsehoods. We understand Mr. Cameron has been invited to deliver an address upon the subject of Sir John's pamphlet in Hamilton, where the liar who compiled the brochure lives, and that he is likely to accede to the request. In such an event there is a skinning in store for Editor Freed, Sir John's Munitions.

FRAUD!

Mr. Robert Porter Proved to be a Falsifier.

Dis-honesty, Ignorance and Falshood of the "Honest, Intelligent and True" Tory Candidate.

If all the rascally efforts ever made by a party candidate to make a false impression, that attempted by Robert Porter, of Simcoe, the Tory nominee for West Huron on Wednesday evening was the most barefaced and deliberate.

M. C. Cameron, M. P. for West Huron was invited to attend Porter's meeting.

He was guaranteed fair treatment on the platform, but contrary to common usage and the rules of debate, Porter insisted upon Mr. Cameron speaking before him out of occasion. This was done in open defiance of the invitation extended at the Clinton and other meetings. At Clinton the Tory bill stated, "Mr. M. C. Cameron is invited to be present, he will receive the fair treatment, always accorded by the Conservatives to an opponent." At the other meetings the invitation was extended, "Mr. M. C. Cameron will be given a fair hearing at any of these meetings he may attend." Our friends will now have an idea of what the Tory candidate believes to be fair play. But let that pass for the present.

At the close of Mr. Porter's address an incident occurred which proved beyond doubt the rascally object Porter had in view when he planned the order of speaking at the meeting. He undertook at the close of the meeting, when Cameron had no chance to reply, to prove that the latter had made deliberate misstatements on the floor of Parliament, and began reading from the Spectator pamphlet on the halfpenny question. This ensued some spirited crossing.

Cameron—That is no authority; read from Hansard, the official record.

Porter—Well, I will read from Hansard. Here it is. (Conservative cheers.) Cameron—Here is a volume of Hansard; which volume do you want?

Porter—I don't want your volume; I'll read from my own book.

Cameron—All right; do what you please.

Porter then proceeded to quote Mr. Cameron as saying: "These are not the only complaints that the Indians have been making for a number of years. We promised, and are under treaty obligations to supply the Indians, just fresh from the plains, from which the buffalo had disappeared, with fresh beef."

Cameron—I never said so. I never used the word "treaty." (Cheers.)

Porter—The official report that I hold in my hand says you did.

Cameron—What page is it on?

Porter—Page 756.

Cameron (after looking at an index)—I never said so. You are not quoting from Hansard.

Porter—I am (throwing the volume on the table).

Cameron—This is not Hansard at all; it is a cocked version for Tory campaign purposes. (Loud cheers.)

At this Porter lost his temper, and became vituperative in the extreme, and lashed the air and foamed at the mouth, closing by claiming that he would be elected on the 22nd of February.

Loud cries were then made for "Cameron," but Dr. Robins, an Exeter medico, who has no vote, title or influence in the riding, rushed to the platform, and called for cheers for Porter, which were given.

Low and prolonged cheers were then given for M. C. Cameron.

It now transpires that the book from which Porter read was not Hansard at all, but a compilation of unverified speeches in parliament, bound together by an enterprising Tory newspaper man.

The bogus Hansard of Mr. Robert Porter is not worth the paper it is written upon as an authority, and if Mr. Porter does not know it, he is not fit to be a member of Parliament.

The Star says Porter is "Honest intelligent and true." If his attempt at fraud is to be his gauge, he is utterly devoid of the attributes. If he were honest he would not have restored to so rascally a trick; if he were intelligent, he would not have been ignorant of the difference between a bound batch of unverified speeches and the Hansard; if he were true, he would not have lied in so absurd a manner, and claimed that the bogus book was an official document.

Robert Porter stands convicted of dishonesty, stupidity or falsehood—or all three combined—and all the waters of Lake Huron cannot cleanse him from the stain.

WHAT'S UP?

Things That Are Happening Around Us.

The Tory Candidate—Campaign "Boodle"—Thoughts on Tory Tactics.

—As I had expected, my old friend, Robert Porter, has been offered and has accepted the Tory nomination for West Huron. Of course, it is distinctly understood that Robert Porter will not have to foot the bill, for his circumstances during the years that I have known him have not been sufficiently good to permit of his bearing single-handed the burden of a political contest in a constituency which is deemed by every local Tory to be hopelessly Reform.

And if Porter doesn't pay the shot whose going to do it? The local Tories can't, for most of the ringsters in Goderich are men who have taken advantage of the Insolvent Act of 1879 and amendments thereto, and are not in a position to make liberal grants on this occasion. The business men outside of the ringsters who have means had too much trouble getting it together to fritter it away on an outside political candidate from Simcoe, or any other county. And yet the boodle has been raised.

—How do I know the boodle has been raised? As the lawyers say, that's a leading question, but I don't mind telling you if you don't let the boodlers know where you got it. In the first place, every man Jack who was out during the past campaign, doing picket-duty on the concession lines, from Deacon Mitchell, of Lochalsh, to the Wingham bill-sticker, has received his stipend; well, no, I must except Tom Swartz, the liveryman, who furnished the horse-draw on the occasion. They kicked when his legitimate bill came in, and thought they could bulldoze him into taking twenty dollars less than the amount. But Tom wouldn't be "jewed," and the boodlers will have to either put up or walk to the meetings at this election.

Its mighty strange the Tories should kick against paying their honest hack-hire debts, and yet should ante up to the two-legged critters who earned their bread by the sweat of their jaw during the campaign.

—How do I know Dr. Taylor did not do the straightening up of the financial matter? That's another leading question, but I'll tell you of it, too. There was an item fixed in connection with the others that the doctor was not personally interested in; and that was the liquidating of the claims due for the Dominion selections under the franchise act. That matter has also been straightened up.

—By-the-way isn't it mighty strange that there are so many Central Bank bills in circulation during the past week or so. It must be a new bank, for the bills are all crisp and new, and I'll have to go over to the Bank of Montreal and ask my friend the teller if they are really negotiable. For the past three or four weeks money has been tighter than the bark on a tree, but it's getting somewhat easier since the Tory convention. I've heard some of the neighbors say that they wouldn't be surprised if the boodle brigade was working the Central Bank racket, and if that's the case of course it will account for the plethora of bills. And the strangest part of the business is that the fellows that are flush with new bills now are the very men who couldn't rattle two red cents together a few days ago. I guess I'll ask the county treasurer if the county council is making a distribution of back taxes to the deserving poor Tories of the town. He'll know something about it, likely.

—There's a Tory boodler in West Huron, and don't you forget it. It isn't Dr. Taylor, and it isn't Robert Porter, but he's on deck, all the same, and you'll see his trail if you keep your eye skinned.

—And while I'm speaking about the Conservative prospects in West Huron, I might tender my deepest sympathy to that party in the affliction that befell it Sunday last, when the candidate, Mr. Porter, was stricken down with illness so suddenly. The first the public knew of the calamity was when Dr. Taylor's rig drove up to the hotel at which Mr. Porter was staying, and the doctor at once proceeded to the private room of the afflicted gentleman. After diagnosing the case, I presume, Dr. William Joseph Russell Holmes was communicated with in some way, and he also came hurriedly to the hotel, and proceeded to Mr. Porter's room. Lawyer Johnston was also called in, presumably to make the will for the stricken one, and some others were called in to act as attendants on the occasion. After a consultation on the case, it was decided to conduct the patient to the doctor's conveyance, and he was at once driven to Dr. Taylor's residence, where under careful treatment he so rapidly recovered, that on Monday morning he was able to be around bright and early, to solicit the votes of the free and independent electors. Some of the Grit neighbors have meantly said that Mr. Porter wasn't sick at all Sunday afternoon and inauate that the gathering in his room was a Tory caucus, but I charitably take the view that he was very ill, and the presence of the two doctors and the lawyer and the nurses give stability to my contention.

—Now that I've given some information there is a point or two I'd like some of the neighbors to straighten up for me. Why was Porter selected to contest West Huron? If it's a dead sure thing that a Tory can carry it, could not some square-toed, level headed fellow be found amongst our local Conservatives ready to take the position? I know some of the neighbors who could poll a larger vote than Porter in town, and could do just as well in the townships, and I want to know why they were not given a chance to reap the honor? Robt. Porter is not a resident of the county, and he never had a right, title or interest in the riding, and if he isn't merely a "stopgap," what is he? For once in my life, I'm at sea, and if any of the neighbors will answer this double-barrelled conundrum I'll be much obliged to him. AXAX.

ONE thing in Riel's favor is that he did not play a coward's part upon the gallows. Had he been the unprincipled, cowardly, unscrupulous wretch the Tory orators paint him, he would have died differently. Give the dead rebel his due.

Reeves who Will be Missed.

To the Editor of the Clinton News Era.

DEAR SIR,—If it continues to snow like this, I do not know how I will ever get to the county council next week, and sorry am I to think that many of our old reeves will be missed this year. Commencing in the east, where the wise man come from, the first we will miss in Tom Strachan, of Grey. Who will be more missed than Honest Tom, when the poor house question comes up, or when Judge Toms wants a Gistic song. Then, there is Sam Black, of Turberry, who, so capable of looking after the stony lands of his township, or the towns and villages in the county, as him. Why, sir, if Samuel had his way, there would not be town or village in Huron, by noon tomorrow. Passing on westward, we miss the noble minded reeve of East Wawanosh who so fitted to talk against time (when that was an object) as Bob Currie. On we go towards the setting sun into Colborne, long represented by Billy Young. Then we miss the good St. Antoni's, he, too, has left his chair, (so well filled, where he quietly sat holding the level of power, when Antont put down his foot, it was there every time. Turning south, we cross the Maitland, where we find Gabriel, too, has blown his last trumpet. And last, but not least, we go over to Bayfield, the lady municipality of the county, meeting the most careful nursing, as all babies do. Who so capable of looking after the rivers and streams bill, or fishery right question, so often brought up by Tuckersmith Davis, as Eben, who was drowned in Scott Act whisky. These were all slain in battle, other men take their places. Such is life. V. V.

The Three Misses.

A correspondents asks us to give the townships and places forming the several ridings in Huron for the Dominion election, with the candidates who are running. They are as follows:—

WEST RIDING.—All of Goderich Township, Colborne, Ashfield, East and West Wawanosh, Clinton and Goderich towns. Liberal candidate, M. C. Cameron. Conservative, Robt. Porter.

EAST RIDING.—Howick, Grey, Morris, Turberry, Wingham, Brussels, Blyth and Wroxeter. Liberal candidates, Dr. McDonald. Conservative, Thos. Farrow.

SOUTH HURON.—McKillop, Tuckersmith, Hay, Hullett, Stanley, Saferoth, Bayfield. Liberal candidate, John McMillan.

The village of Exeter and township of Stephen, though in this county, are in the Riding of North Middlesex for the Dominion election, and Colborne in North Perth.

THE Toronto News hits the Tories of West Huron as well as the Tories of West Durham when it says:—"As a rule constituencies should elect local men. Exceptions may reasonably be made in the case of party leaders, and men of extraordinary ability. But the intrusion of party leaders, who have no interest in the locality, is simply an impertinence."
