HAYS AND CHAMBERLIN VISITING EDMONTON

They That Contract for Remaining Portion of Main Line Will Shortly Be Signed—Are Going West to Edson Today.

(From Thursday's Daily.) The contract for the remaining portion of the Grand Trunk Pacific will shortly be signed according to the statement made last evening by General Manager Chamberlin...

Mr. Chamberlin, who along with President Hays and A. W. Smith, chairman of the board of directors, is touring Western Canada for the purpose of inspecting the line and of gaining information relative to the contracts...

A few minor details are not yet arranged and when these are decided the contracts will be drawn up and signed.

Asked as to whether Foley, Welch and Stewart would get as far as I have been able to see they will be in the city to see the announcement on that point," replied Mr. Chamberlin.

"As to the hotel there is nothing to say," said Mr. Chamberlin in reply to a question put to him by the reporter.

"We have received no notice from the city of the closing of streets and as far as I have been able to see they are not closed yet. We can do nothing until they are. We are waiting for the city to act."

Questioned as to the prospects for a crop, Mr. Chamberlin stated that everything was in splendid condition.

"There are certainly great crops if only they can be harvested," said Mr. Chamberlin.

"The rains have been universal and the same backward conditions prevail all along the line."

The party which occupies a special train arrived at eight o'clock last evening from Winnipeg after a trip of about thirty hours.

In the party there are in addition to Mr. Smith and Mr. Hays, Mr. Chamberlin, general manager, and H. H. Brewer, general superintendent.

A number of ladies are also included among the personnel.
