HOT TIME IN HOUSE OVER ANDERSON'S REVELATIONS.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, April 21. Memories of the turbulent scenes of Parnell's time were revived in the House of Commons to-night during the discussion of a motion by T. P. O'Connor to reduce the Civil Service estimates by four thousand five hundred dollars, the amount of Sir Robert Anderson's pension. In an autobiographic article recently Sir Robert Anderson admitted authorship of the famous Parnellism and Crime series of articles which appeared in the Times in 1887 and culminated in the public action of the Pigott forgery. The Irish members of the House announced their intention to obtain if possible a Government investigation of the affair with a view to depriving Sir Robert of his pension on the ground that his act was a breach of official confidence because he had been the Head of the Investigation Department of the State. Mr. Balfour agreed at to-night's session with Premier Asquith and Mr. Churchill in condemning Sir Robert's action as improper, but Mr. Churchill as Home Secretary declined to interfere to deprive him of his pension. The debate was proceeding quietly but with acerbity on the part of the Nationalists; one of the declared that Sir Robert's articles were an attempt to revive old charges against the Nationalists in order to help the Tories in the coming election when the Rt. Hon. Jas. Henry Campbell, member for Dublin University, in the course of his speech referred to the Phoenix Papers and Pigott Forgery called forth the highest resentment from the Irish benches. There were loud demands for Mr. Campbell to withdraw his offensive expressions. The chairman declined to interfere a perfect uproar ensued, Mr. Redmond shouting it was an outrage, while others cried send for the Speaker. The Chairman and Secretary for War Haldane vainly appealed to the House to allow Mr. Campbell to continue his speech. The Pandemonium was renewed on the part of the Nationalists, who shouted Pigott, Dublin Castle, we won't stand it and cheered for Parnell. The scene was continued for several minutes and finally Mr. Churchill moved a closure and Mr. O'Connor's motion was rejected 164 to 94.

Sacrilege at the Kremlin—Half Million Dollars Worth of Jewels Looted.

Special to Evening Telegram.

MOSCOW, April 21. Diamond ornaments valued at hundreds of thousands of rubles have been stolen from the greatly revered image of the Virgin in the Cathedral at Kremlin. The theft was discovered to-day. The theft which was perpetrated during the night has thrown the Muscovites into great excitement and their emotion is pitiful to witness. Many precious stones out of the frames and out of the Pictures of the Saints are missing. The total value of the loot is estimated at $500,000.

Eight Voters Shot.

Special to Evening Telegram.

FORT DE FRANCE, MARTINIQUE, April 21. Furious disorders have occurred at several points as the result of the excitement and high partisan feeling over the elections. During an election disturbance at St. Joseph, last night 8 voters were shot. Three of their assailants were arrested at the town of Robertson on the East Coast. Several shots were fired at a clerk for one of the Candidates. Business houses in the interior have been closed by the proprietors who fearing further trouble have appealed to the Government, which will send troops for their protection.

Air Squadron Review.

Special to Evening Telegram.

BERLIN, April 21. The first Imperial review of airships belonging to the army will take place to-day. The Emperor ordered the 3 aerial Cruisers which recently engaged in manoeuvres to hold a review. The Airships are Zeppelin the second, Parseval the second, and Gross the second, constructed on a different system. They will leave Cologne before daybreak. A large detachment of the Balloon Battalion has been ordered to that place to assist in the landing.

Mark Twain Has Crossed the Bar.

Special to Evening Telegram.

REDDING, CONN., April 21. Samuel Longhorn Clements, Mark Twain, died peacefully at his home here at 6.30 to-night of Angina Pectoris. He lapsed into Coma at 3 o'clock this afternoon and never recovered consciousness. It was the end of a man worn out by grief and agony of body.

Refused to Be Knighted

Mr. John Henniker Heaton, who has announced his intention of retiring at the end of the present Parliament, could have been knighted many times, and once his name was actually included in an Honours List. But he has preferred to remain untitled. "I am satisfied," he once declared, "with the freedom of the City of London, which I consider is the greatest honour it is possible for a man to receive." His avowed ideal is to enable inhabitants of our planet to communicate with any other for the sum of one penny.

ANNUAL TRIDUUM.—At the Chapel of Our Lady of Good Counsel the annual Triduum previous to the Feast of Our Lady will be held on Saturday, the 23rd.

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, Etc.

Choral and Orchestral.

The second programme of this Society was given at the College Hall, last night. The first part was taken up with Coleridge-Taylor's "Hiawatha," a cantata not generally known here and in form different from the general run of cantatas, there being but one solo, the rest being taken by the full chorus of voices. The tone of the chorus has improved since the last concert but "Hiawatha," we think, was taken rather too loudly throughout. It is a long piece and without some light and shade it proved a bit heavy at times. While the very few soft movements showed more the imperfection of the voices they were infinitely more enjoyable than f.f. parts. The music is interesting and in many places showed its Indian character. In the Faust number a bit of Grand Opera was given; the chorus, Miss Fitzpatrick, Miss McKinley, Mr. Mawer and Mr. O'Reilly taking part. "The Long Day Closes" (Sullivan) was perhaps the most enjoyable of the chorus work; the difficulties of subduing such a big body of singers are great, and the expression which was put in this part was good. The last chorus was in truly Wagnerian style and was given in a good broad manner. It was the well known "Hail, Light Abode," and the singers seemed to enjoy it to the full. The orchestra has been reinforced since the January concert and has improved, specially with the addition of Mr. Jas. Power, (Clarinet), who in the selection "Mignon," showed his mastery over his instrument, and added much to the number. The orchestra accompanied throughout the evening with the exception of one part song, and it was doubtless owing to this continual playing that Miss Johnson decided not to give her solo. Their selections were Inflammatus (Rossini); the familiar "Poet and Peasant" overture, and bits from Thomas' opera "Mignon." The last was very enjoyable, especially the pastoral opening by flute and clarinet, the whole selection being more dainty and light than the other numbers. Miss Strang sang "Love the Pedlar" (German), and Mr. Mawer in good voice gave "Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind" (Sargeant.) We shall look for even more improvement in the Society at the next appearance; unaccompanied chorus singing appeals to an audience as much as anything and we would suggest, that more of this be taken up, with benefit individually to the voices and pleasure to the listeners. Mr. Hutton and Mr. Mawer have gone through a great deal of work in getting up the concerts and the public should and we think does appreciate it. Might we suggest that the lighting arrangements of the Hall be made better; the present lights have done noble service but are far from sufficient.

Juvenile Society Entertained.

Last night Albert Edward Branch of the Newfoundland British Society had their annual tea and entertainment at their rooms in the Society's Hall. An excellent tea was provided for the ladies which all heartily enjoyed, after which a very entertaining concert took place. When this ended President W. H. Goodland addressed the ladies, complimenting them on their smartness and neat appearance, and giving them some sound practical advice. Before leaving fruit and candy were handed the ladies. The officers of the adult and junior branches were present. Masters F. Bussey, W. Tucker, N. McLeod and J. Stone did exceptionally well at the concert, and besides President Goodland the ladies were addressed by Messrs. Maund and Downton.
