Tale of Mystery

CHAPTER XXVIII. A GRIP OF DEATH.

When de Montalt lost his hold of Desse he screams ceased and a rustling noise told him that she had moved. Instantly he stretched out his hands and groped rapidly in all directions; but he could feel nothing of her, and he sprang to his feet therefor and went to the door of the room lest she should try to escape.

Then he held his breath and listened again, but not a sound came to his ears. The time was slipping fast, and yet he seemed no nearer the object he had in view. He resolved then on a more desperate plan. He must take the risk of getting some kind of light, and grapple with the girl. He shut the door of the room and thrust enough of the furniture against it to make it impossible for Desse to escape, and then felt about for the gas bracket, but could not find it. He cursed his ill-luck. He had now indeed lost all self-control, and was like a madman in his baffled fury and anxiety to get the work done, while his mind was so inflamed against Desse that he was to the full as eager to lay hands upon her as he was to find the jewels.

Neuralgia and Sciatica

Caused great suffering for 25 years. Nothing effective until Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills were used. "It affords me pleasure to speak favorably of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills," writes Mr. W. T. Collins, Morpeth, Ont. "I had been a sufferer for 25 years from sciatic, lumbago and neuralgia and tried nearly all the remedies advertised without one particle of benefit until I began the use of Dr. Chase's medicines. Before I had finished two boxes of the Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills I noticed considerable benefit in my condition. I have so much confidence in these medicines that I have recommended them to dozens of my friends."

man who was gripping his throat with hysterical and feverish vehemence was forced into a posture which rendered him liable to be hurled aside; and as soon as he had judged his distance and position, with the wariness of a practised wrestler, de Montalt got ready for the coup by which he meant to get the other at his mercy.

But before it came, an incident happened which affected both men, and had Landale had a weapon of any kind in his hand would probably have given him an immediate victory.

The fall and the subsequent lunge of the fight roused Desse from her swoon, and with a great effort she struggled up into a sitting posture. She was dazed at the furious fight which she saw, and in confusion she followed her woman's instinct, and began to scream with all her power.

But the slight delay which he screams had caused had given Desse time to gather her bewildered wits sufficiently to understand something of the terrible issue to herself should Landale be killed.

By a stroke of luck, the revolve which the Frenchman had torn from her grasp, and thrown away, lay close beside her, and seizing it now she struggled to her feet, and went close to where the two men were locked in the death struggle. She reached them just at the moment when de Montalt had drawn his own weapon. Another instant would have been too late.

But now, pointing her weapon with the muzzle almost touching the arm with which de Montalt was holding his revolver, she fired.

"What are you doing her?" cried the baronet in a loud voice. "That is my affair," was the answer; while the Frenchman's hand went instantly to the pocket where lay his revolver.

Sluggish Liver Action

Causes indigestion, constipation and bilious headache.-Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills the cure. "Sluggish liver has been my trouble," writes Mrs. I. P. Smith, Paris, Ont., "and I have been greatly benefited by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I have taken medicines from several good doctors, but none ever did me the same amount of good as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I could not keep up and do my work if I did not use these pills when the bilious spells come on, and I have recommended them to many."

H.P. SAUCE At Lunch Time Make a point of trying H.P. Sauce, you will be delighted with the new and delicious flavour—quite distinct from ordinary sauces.

So what you can, I will have the place put in order." The doctor was discretion itself; accepted what was told him, asked no questions except such as were necessary to enable him to judge of the "case," and went away to make preparations.
