MEDELSSOHN died 1847, aged 36. German musical composer who appeared in public as a pianist before his twelfth year and composed the "Midsummer Night's Dream" overture when only seventeen. Unlike Beethoven, Schubert, Schumann and others, he never sounded the depths of human emotion, but seemed to regard music chiefly as a means of so-lace and pure enjoyment.

GEORGE PEARBODY died 1869, aged 74. American philanthropist, who settled in London as a Banker in 1837. His benefactions amounted to nearly two and a half million pounds sterling.

SIEGE OF LADYSMITH commenced 1899.

ADMIRAL BENBOW died 1702, aged 49. One of the old type of sea-men, who first saw active service in merchant vessels and the age of thirty was master of his own vessel. His exploits brought him to the notice of the Admiralty and he quickly rose in the service.

SONLESS.

My boy, with eager heart,
Undaunted for the fray,
You would have played your part
For England's cause to-day!

I, whom you cost so dear,
Would buckle on your sword,
Send you without one fear,
To battle for the Lord!

Woe, I have naught to give
Save work and prayers and tears!
God, how do mothers live
Throughout the ravaging years?

Swoop down with covering wings,
Blot out the hell we see,
Swift end these sufferings,
Sonless I cry to Thee!

—Annie S. Swan.

"LOOKED THE PART"

Men must look right and be right to command success. Clear eyes, clear skin and clear brain mean money to the man who possesses them. Dull eyes, sluggish brain and a pimply, blotchy skin are a serious handicap.

O'Mara's Hypophosphates will re-move pimples and blotches, brighten the eye and increase vital power by giving you pure blood and good circulation. Price $1.00.

We recommend it because we know what it contains.

Christ and Coercion.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Sir,—It seems to me that Mr. Black-all's letter, in which he sought to show that the Christ did not use coercion, but rather exercised His loving and drawing power, and he quotes the Master's words:—"And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me," to prove his position, may be best replied to by calling attention to the incident recorded by St. Mark 9, 25, where Jesus said with coercive authority:—"Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him and enter no more into him."

Many of the humble followers of the Blessed Master are, on this fourth day of November, engaged in following His example, and are striving to have cast out for ever from our loved Island Home, a deaf and dumb spirit, that has wrecked lovely lives, devastated happy homes, blighted the prospects of innocent children, and sent many into untimely graves.

Can we do it? Yes, if we follow our great Example, we can; let us all try to be true to conscience and to what we believe to be right.

Yours, etc.,
J. E. P. PETERS.

A druggist can obtain an imitation of MINARD'S LINIMENT from a Toronto house at a very low price, and have it labeled his own product.

This greasy imitation is the poorest one we have yet seen of the many that every Tom, Dick and Harry has tried to introduce.

Ask for MINARD'S and you will get it.

Beothic Now on Trial Trip.

Negotiations for the purchase of the S. S. Beothic by the Russian Government are not yet closed and will not be pending the result of her trial trip, on which she left port this morning. We understand that unless the Beothic makes thirteen knots the transfer will not take place. Those interested are confident that the ship will not only make that amount of speed but will tick off fifteen knots, as the Beothic is looked upon as the clipper of our sealing fleet.

Cape Report.

Special to Evening Telegram.

CAPE RACE, To-day. Wind light and variable, weather dull and raining. The s.s. Bonaventure passed west yesterday afternoon, a Bell Island steamer and two other unknown steamers west this morning. Bar. 29.38; ther. 44.

COAL CARGOES ARRIVE. — The schooners Dora V. Myra and Watanga arrived here yesterday from Louis-burg with cargoes of coal.

Amusements.

BRITISH THEATRE.

The splendid programme of last evening will be repeated at this popular theatre this afternoon and night. The three real feature: "The Tenth Commandment" is one well worth seeing, and the comedy: "How Df. Cupid Won" is very humorous. To-night Mrs. G. W. B. Ayre will sing: "O Dry Those Tears" and it is scarcely necessary to remind patrons of the British what an excellent treat is in store for them. The object for which Mrs. Ayre is singing is truly British, as her salary is to be given to the funds of the Women's Patriotic Association for comforts for our boys at the front.

CROWDS AT NICKEL TO SEE CHARLIE CHAPLIN.

Hundreds of citizens attended the Nickel Theatre yesterday and were delighted with the performance. The Charlie Chaplin Comedy was a screamer and caused much amusement. It kept the audiences in roars of laughter. The 13th episode of "The Trey O' Hearts" was as usual exciting and popular. The social drama: "Countess Vexhi's Jewels" and the Vi-tagraph star photo play: "How Cissy Made Good" were charming pictures. The programme will be repeated to-day. Be sure and attend. It is really the finest programme for some time. Everybody should see to-day's grand show.

"WALTZ, WALTZ, WALTZ" AT THE CRESCENT.

Mr. Dan Delmar sings a comedy number: "Waltz, Waltz, Waltz" in double voice at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day. Mr. Delmar specializes in this kind of novelty singing, go to-day and hear him. "The Hermit of Bird Island" is a great sea drama in 3 reels, a Lubin masterpiece. "Poet and Peasant" is a fine drama, Lottie Briscoe and Arthur Johnson are the principals supported with a strong cast. "The Fable of the Bachelor and the Back Pedal" is a class comedy by George Ade. This is a great show don't miss it. On Monday, the Crescent will show a 2 reel picturization of Wilkie Collins great story: "The New Magdalen."

A CHALLENGE FOR CONTEST.

At the big double contest Friday night Miss Atlantis will offer a handsome prize to any person who can lift her off her feet. The lady weighs one hundred and twenty pounds. She will not hold on to anything or be fastened in any way. This will be a wonderful sight to see the strongest man in town try to do. Besides the three big prizes to the ordinary competitors, Miss Atlantis has kept her most beautiful act to the last. Her various delightful dances in bewil-dering costumes. Mr. Fisk will show how the submarines go after the liners, the big guns at work, a marvelous mechanical novelty. Don't miss this show, you may never see such wonderful effects again. At Saturday's matinee Miss Atlantis has something special for the children. On Monday Carrol and Ellor the great Irish comedy sketch artists.

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Reid.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—It is with regret I record the death of an old lady, Elizabeth Reid, who passed to the Great Beyond, October 30th, at the ripe old age of 71 years and 3 months. She was laid to rest on November 1st, in the C. of E. Cemetery. The text being: The Revelations of St. John the Divine, 20, 11-15 verses. She leaves four sons, four daughters, three brothers and a large circle of friends to mourn the sad loss of a kind mother, loving sister and a true friend to all who knew her. The cause of her death was heart failure which was a very agonizing complaint, but up to the time of her death she bore it as meekly as a lamb. The only joy of all her loved ones was she died in Christ; she had a hope beyond the grave, and I believe she is resting in the fair and happy land.

There also passed away on the 30th Oct. the darling daughter of Aaron Andrews, at the tender age of 1 year and three months. She was laid to rest November 1st, in the Methodist Cemetery. May He comfort all those mourners in their lonely hours, and teach them to say: "Not my will but thine be done."

A SYMPATHIZER.
Winterton, Nov. 2, 1915.

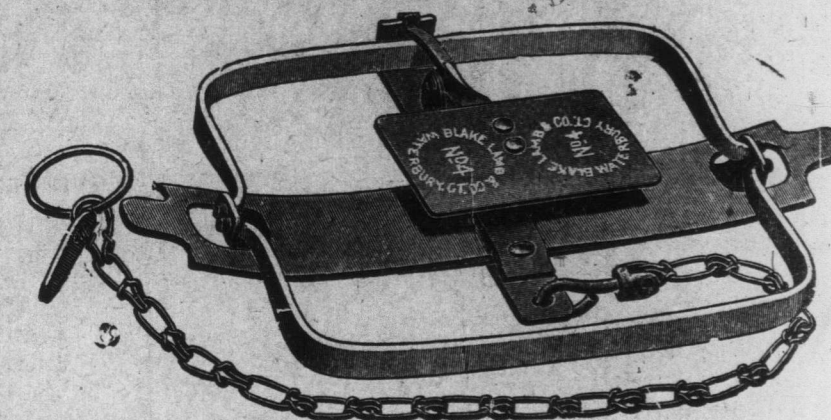

A QUICK PASSAGE. — The schr. Alameda, Capt. Joseph Miller, arrived in port yesterday afternoon after a passage of 15 days from Oporto. The run to Oporto occupied 21 days, due to the vessel becoming becalmed for 8 days when within 200 miles of that port.

What Are You Doing for that Eczema?

"Nothing; I've about given up trying to cure it."
"That is not wise. Do as I did and you will probably be cured in a short time. I used Zylex and Zylex Soap with it and my Eczema began to improve at once. A couple of boxes cured. You can get Zylex at your druggists."

Zylex, 50c. a box; Zylex Soap, 25c. a cake. Zylex, London. eod,tf
