

SPORTOGRAPHS

READY, COLLEGIANS!

Friends and supporters of the Old Collegian Tennis Club are reminded that the formal opening will be this evening at 7 o'clock when Mr. C. P. Arre will deliver the first ball. An exhibition game will follow. In the meantime the ladies will serve refreshing teas from 5.30 on.

GUARDS 8-CL.B. 0.

Thank goodness, such exhibitions as last night's game were rare on St. George's Field. It brought one back to the days of our youth to a "free-and-easy" behind the Tannery or on the Barrons. Lack of skill and knowledge of the game on one side, and the definite knowledge of their superiority on the other, made a game that no self-respecting fan would care to sit out its entire length. However, just as it takes a little rain with the sunshine to make the world go round, so it takes some dug games with the houndings to make a football season.

THE GIBBONS-DEMPESEY BOIT.

Tommy Gibbons, who fought Jack Dempsey last Wednesday at Montreal is the first man ever to go the full time limit with the present world's champion. Gibbons is six years older and 15 pounds lighter than Dempsey. The latter was given the decision by Referee Jimmy Daugherty of Philadelphia, his room mate and best friend, who favoured him in foul work all through the bout, according to the dope of the sporting writers who were present at the battle. It was a disastrous afternoon for Dempsey, for he lost as much in prestige as Gibbons gained, and that in a large measure.

Dempsey, being so much more powerful than Gibbons, the fight was marked by Tommy's clinching. At close work Dempsey outpointed Gibbons because the little man was always too busy defending his middle with his forearms and elbows. Dempsey would lead and miss, or be blocked off. Gibbons would counter and shove his left glove under Dempsey's right arm. Then they would shove and maul, thumping each other on the side of the head with short jolting rights, or whipping terse pokes to the body.

Gibbons was fuming against the ropes in the sixth round and his body went beneath and outside the top strand. He was ducking to get back into the ring when Dempsey was upon him with a downward smash of his right to the neck. This was the rabbit punch that brought down Georges Carpentier. Referee Daugherty ignored it. Dempsey struck Gibbons low several times in the middle rounds of the bout. Daugherty didn't see him. They were ordered to break clean and back away at the referee's command. Repeatedly on the breaks Dempsey would leap in with long smashes at the chin or body before they were completely broken.

But Daugherty never said anything to Dempsey. Daugherty is always the first caller at Dempsey's room when the champion goes east. Daugherty was the only man Dempsey would have in the ring in his second fight with Billy Miske. Daugherty was the man Dempsey insisted on as referee in this bout with Tommy Gibbons. He would let no one else be named. Gibbons did not get one red cent for losing the champion out body and a right to the head. Dempsey shot a straight left to Gibbons' face as he backed away. Dempsey swung a left to the jaw, forcing Gibbons to retreat. Gibbons hooked a light left to the head and repeated. Dempsey hammered Gibbons about the body with short rights and lefts in the clinches. Gibbons' mouth was bleeding. Gibbons hooked left to the jaw and shot over a right. In a clinch Dempsey jugged him with a right upper cut. The referee broke them and Dempsey missed a right to the head.

Round 2—Gibbons was short with a left and they clinched. On the break away Dempsey tried a left to the head and Gibbons clinched. Dempsey pounded Gibbons on the back of the head in the clinch and nailed him with a right and left on the breakaway. Gibbons held Dempsey's arms in the clinch to protect his body. Gibbons hooked a left to the chin. Gibbons out Dempsey's right eye. Gibbons sent his right into Tom's mid-section in the clinches. Gibbons missed a right. Gibbons hooked a solid left to the head and Dempsey retaliated with the same punch. Gibbons backed away from two lefts and clinched. They were locked in a clinch pounding each other at the belt.

Round 3—Dempsey drove a right and left to the body and Tom clinched. Dempsey repeated with the same punch and they sailed Gibbons on the jaw with a left hook forcing him to clinch. Gibbons feinted and backed away. Dempsey was short with a left but connected with a right. He battered Tom's body with a right. Gibbons landed two lefts and swung a right to the jaw. Dempsey was short with a left. He attempted to swing Gibbons off his feet, but Gibbons clinched. Dempsey landed a right and left to the body. Tom pounded the champion's mid-section as they came together. Jack dug a hard right into Tom's stomach. He landed another right to the same spot. Gibbons swung a right to the jaw at the belt.

Round 4—Dempsey hooked a left to the stomach and Tom clinched. The champion punched him around the head with rights and lefts in close quarters. Gibbons backed into a corner to avoid two lefts. When he came out they clinched and Dempsey hurt him with body punches. Dempsey kept pounding Gibbons on the back of the head in the clinches. Dempsey took a left hook back of the ear. The champion sunk his right into the body. Gibbons took a hook on the forehead and clinched. Dempsey landed a left hook and a solid left in return. Gibbons hooked a left to the jaw and a right to the head. Dempsey was punishing him severely with short body punches at the belt. Dempsey was bleeding from the old wound over the left eye.

Round 5—Dempsey missed a left to the body as they fell into a clinch. Gibbons poked two light lefts to the head. Dempsey missed a left and Tom clinched. Gibbons hooked two lefts to the head and the crowd cheered. Gibbons landed a third left without a return. Dempsey rocked the challenger with a right and left to the head and nailed him with a solid right to the jaw, forcing him to clinch. Gibbons danced away forcing Dempsey to follow him. Tom hooked a left in Dempsey's face. Dempsey landed a right to the body and Gibbons a left to the ribs. Dempsey shot a left to the head and Gibbons did the same thing. Gibbons hooked a left to Dempsey's eye.

Round 6—Dempsey's left was short in a clinch and referee Daugherty was forced to go between them. Gibbons danced away from Dempsey's leads. Dempsey pulled him back and the crowd boomed. They traded lefts to the head before clinching. Gibbons missed a left and in the clinch pounded his foe on the back of the head with rapid punches. Dempsey hooked right and left to the body. Gibbons nailed the champion with a left hook to the chin when the round ended.

Round 7—Dempsey drove a right to the body and a left to the jaw. As Gibbons came in the champion hooked him with a right to the chin. Gibbons hung on and backed away after the breakaway. Dempsey swung another right to the jaw, and Gibbons hooked him with a left at close quarters. Gibbons ducked a left to the head. He backed away from a hard right swing. In the clinch Dempsey kept hooking rights and lefts to the challenger's body and head. Gibbons backed into the ropes to escape punishment. He appeared to be weakening under Dempsey's savage attacks.

Round 8—Gibbons missed two lefts and Dempsey hooked a left to the chin. In the clinch they exchanged punches to the head. Gibbons whipped over two lefts to the head. Dempsey drove a right to the body and a left to the head. Dempsey landed a left to the head, and Gibbons smashed the champion with a left to the chin. He nailed Jack in the same spot in a clinch. Dempsey smashed Gibbons with a left jab. Tom backed into the ropes and hooked Dempsey high on the head with a left. Gibbons swung a right to the chin. As they clinched Dempsey brought "short" rights and lefts to Tom's face.

Tom danced away from a left hand and exchanged lefts with Dempsey. Gibbons landed a light left to the body as they came together. The elusive Gibbons was getting to be a tough target for the champion. Jack hooked a left to the nose and Gibbons drove a left to Dempsey's chin as they clinched. Dempsey hooked two lefts to the head. Gibbons swung two lefts and a right to Dempsey's head. They exchanged lefts. Dempsey drove Tom into the ropes under a bombardment of lefts and rights. Gibbons hooked the champion with a right and left to the head and then dug his left into the champion's stomach.

Round 11—Gibbons ducked a left to the head. He swung a light left to Dempsey's head. He nailed Jack with a left to the chin and received three lefts to the body and head in return. Gibbons backed away from Dempsey's left lead and swung three light lefts to the head. Dempsey hooked him with two left upper cuts. The champion missed a right and brought another left upper cut to the chin. Gibbons ran into the corner and round the edge of the ring to escape. They traded lefts to the head. Dempsey missed a right and received light lefts to the head as they clinched.

Round 12—Gibbons tried to feint with a left and they clinched. They exchanged punches to the body at close range. Gibbons danced away from a left hook, but hooked over a right to the head. Gibbons backed away from a left and in the clinch Dempsey hammered him on the back of the neck with rabbit punches. Dempsey drove a right and left to the body and hooked the challenger with a left to the head as they clinched. Dempsey missed a left to the chin, but jarred the challenger with a sharp left to the jaw. Breaking away from a clinch, Gibbons swung a right and left to the champion's jaw.

Round 13—Gibbons backed away from Dempsey's rushes and clinched. Dempsey sent two lefts to the head and received a left in return. Dempsey held Gibbons in a clinch, punishing him with jolting rights and lefts to the head. Jack missed a right, but hooked him with a left to the chin. Gibbons swung a left to the head. Dempsey was short with a right to the body. Dempsey nailed Gibbons with a right to the jaw. Dempsey's right was short to the head and Gibbons missed the champion's next right to the jaw. Gibbons sent a right and left to the body. He fanned Dempsey's nose with a right and left and backed away.

Round 14—Dempsey came in with his crouch and they clinched. Gibbons ducked a left and the champion drove a right to the body. Jack chased Gibbons around the ring without landing a punch. Dempsey hooked sharply to the jaw, but missed his second left back to the same spot. Dempsey continued in forcing the fighting with Gibbons clinching at every opportunity. They clinched. Gibbons hooked a left to the head and Jack jarred him with a swinging left to the head. Dempsey backed into a corner momentarily but came out fighting and fell into a clinch in the centre of the ring.

Round 15—The crowd began throwing seat cushions into the air. They shook hands in the middle of the ring. Dempsey missed a left to the body. They clinched. Gibbons backed away, covering up from Dempsey's onslaught. Dempsey hooked a left high to the head and hooked Gibbons into the ropes in a clinch. Dempsey hooked two lefts to the head. Dempsey missed a right swing to the head. Gibbons persisted in clinching and when free ran away from the champion. Dempsey swung two lefts and a right to the head. Gibbons was trying quickly and seeking protection of clinches from Dempsey's vicious rights and lefts to the head as the bell sounded ending the round and the fight.

BECKETT'S INJURED HAND.
Apparently the fight arranged between Beckett and Carpenter for July 4th, has again been postponed. Sir Herbert Barker on June 20th, performed an operation on Beckett's hand which was injured in a previous fight, and in consequence a further length of time to effect a complete recovery was requested by Beckett.

INCORRECT!
It is incorrect as stated in an evening contemporary that Ron O'Toole will compete in the 10 mile tomorrow. On the advice of his manager he is not doing longer than 3 and 5 mile runs until the big "Telegram" Road Race in September. Jack Bell is competing, however, and is out to break his present record of 56.82.

TENNIS.
At 7.30 to-night the Junior Cadets and Junior B.I.S. will try conclusions.

WIMBLEDOWN, ENG. July 8th.
William M. Johnston and Francis T. Hunter, United States' players, will be the finalists in the men's singles of the Wimbledon lawn tennis championships. Each won his semi-final match to-day, Johnson defeating B. I. C. Norton, South Africa, and Hunter beating F. G. Lowe, Great Britain. In the men's doubles Count de Gomar and Eduardo Flaquer, Spain, defeated Lt.-Col. Dudley and J. M. Bell, Great Britain.

Stone Throwing.
A DANGEROUS PRACTICE.
The dangerous practice of stone throwing appears to be on the increase and unless the police make an effort to stop the nuisance serious accidents will result. Yesterday afternoon a 12 year old boy named Green, playing on Buckmaster's Field, was hit in the forehead with a stone thrown by a lad named Coyte. A dangerous wound an inch long was inflicted in Green's head and he had to be attended by a doctor.

Passing Over "Guard." Exceeding Speed Limit. Boy Scouts Under Canva

The passing over of the raceboat Guard by the C.C.C. Boat Club to the C.L.B. Club for the season of 1923, takes place at the Lake-side to-night. The C.L.B. Band will be present and there will be a programme of music. It is expected that a large number of supporters of both clubs will be present.

In spite of the repeated warnings given, there are yet a few motorists who pay no attention to the speed limit, particularly when they get outside the city limits. Last evening at 8.30 one of these reckless drivers passed through Topsail at such terrific speed that several pedestrians had scarcely time to get out of the way. Now that so many city families have taken up residence in the different villages around the bay and the children in consequence will be playing or walking on the roads, some attention should be given to the speed of motorists who pass through these places. The services of a couple of police might possibly prevent a fatal accident.

Canadian Buoy Adrift.
A message received by Mr. H. W. LeMessurier yesterday reports the picking up of a Canadian whistling buoy in Placentia Bay. On last Saturday Mr. Peter Shaw, of Bar Haven, reported having seen a buoy in Placentia Bay. Inspector Dea proceeded to search for it and found it two miles from the Downs, where it was a menace to shipping, and towed it to Argentia. The buoy is an automatic whistler with 15 fathoms of 1 1/2 inch chain attached. It bears the Canadian official number 594.

Personal.
Mr. George H. Hunt, Superintendent of the Imperial Life Assurance Co., Toronto, Canada, arrived in the city by Saturday's express. During Mr. Hunt's stay he will hold a conference with the local agents of the company.
