

Prospero Arrives From Northward

S. F. Prospero, Capt. John. Field, returned from the northward yesterday at 2.30 p.m., having made all ports of call both going and coming on the Cook's Hr. Service run. Capt. Field reports a splendid sign of fish between Englee and Williamsport, and boats and dories are doing well. The steamer met fine weather until Sunday last when a N.E. gale with fog set in and the ship was obliged to remain at Greenspond over night. Upwards of 150 fishermen boarded the ship at Quirpon, St. Anthony, St. Julien's, Ship Harbour and other points along the French Shore, and were landed at points in Bonavista Bay coming south. On Monday night last a large number of schooners returning south were obliged to harbour at Port Union out of the storm. The captain and crew of the shipwrecked schooner Montague were brought to their homes by the Prospero. The Montague met her fate early last week and had 2,700 qtls. of fish on board, which is a big loss to the owners. The epidemic of Typhoid Fever at Hampden is reported to be practically stamped out. The patients have been isolated and Nurse White who is kept constantly in attendance has done good work in combatting the disease. The Prospero brought freight, consisting principally of fish and oil. The following passengers landed here:—Messrs. Kent, Key, Penney, Morgan, Blackmore, Bartlett, Newbury, Bath, Whelan, Donaldson, Bath, Dawe, Arnold, Manuel, Murray, Downey, Morris, Green, Hearn, Penney, White, Winsor, Ebsary, Spurrell, Kean, Blackmore, Hollett, Pomeroy, Rosenbach, Dyke, Lodge, Brown, Curtis, Brown, Walsh, Aylward, Hiscock, Field, Brown, Baines, Barbour, Mahoney, Walsh, Murphy, Aylward, Barbour, Walsh and Murphy; Mesdames Blackmore, Newbury, Taylor, Small, Harbin, Miles, Penny, Anthony, Oake, Kean, Morris, Caul, Parsons, Saunders, White, Nolan, Blackmore, Clements, Kean, Sullivan, Lewis, Verge, Vivian, Brown, Hogarth, Harbour, Byrne, Field, Ivany, Barbour, Bartory, Misses Deckers, Elliott, McClure, Brothens, Middleton, Small, Cobb, Ware, Way, Anstey, Gillard, Peyton, Miles, Wilcox, Saunders, Clements, Milfin, Curtis, Fowlow, Tibbo, Dohois, Blundon, Hogarth, Mills, Ivany Flynn, Hennebury, Strickland and Jarrett and 36 in steerage. The Prospero sails again 10 a.m. Friday.

Charged With Larceny

Yesterday afternoon Jacob Mitchell appeared before the Magistrate on two charges of stealing. According to the evidence of Head Constable Byrne, Mitchell whilst at Hawke's Bay had been given a cheque for $22.80 by Ambrose Penton to bring to his relatives here. Another man John Furlong also desiring to send some money home trusted the prisoner with a cheque for $14.77. Mitchell it is claimed cashed both the cheques at Harbor Deep and retained the proceeds. He was not asked to plead and was remanded for eight days. Mitchell has, but recently served a six months sentence for larceny.

A Fortune in a Match-Box

The third biggest diamond in the world has recently been brought to London, and now resides in the strong-room of a City bank. This precious stone, formerly called the Excelsior-Jubilee, but known now as the Tata-Jubilee, after its owner, Sir Dorabji Tata, came from the famous Jagerfontein Mine. It originally weighed 971 1/2 carats, but was reduced by cutting to 739 carats. Even so it has the distinction of being the biggest diamond in the world belonging to a private individual, the two Cullinans, which weighed 516 1/2 and 309 carats respectively, being the property of the Crown. Valued at £200,000, it is easily contained in an ordinary match-box.

KEMPTEN, Bavaria, Sept. 24 (A.P.)—A local laborer recently found on the road a purse containing 130,000 gold marks, equal to 45,000. He learned the money had been lost by some American tourists, and returned it. The honest man was honestly rewarded, for the tourists gave him one-tenth, $4,500.
