

An Eastern Normal School.

We notice by the last number of the Brockville Recorder that steps are being taken by the different parties interested, to secure the location of the proposed Normal School, which the Government of Ontario intend to establish for the Eastern section of the Province.

FROM THE MANITOULIN.—A subscriber writing from Manitowaning makes grievous complaints about the non-receipt of the mails at the Manitoulin. He states that before and during the election the Algoma called regularly going up to or coming down from the Sault, but since that time her calls have been very irregular.

ment to get through before the probable complications of their master's Government at Ottawa, and thus secure another short tenure of office.

The New York World considers it futile to deny the fact that the recent elections have destroyed all chance of Mr Greeley's election, though the Tribune still maintains the probability of success.

On account of a temporary misunderstanding with the financial agents in Europe, the work on the Northern Pacific Railway has for the present been suspended.

The money market in the United States is very stringent at the present moment. The prime cause of this is believed to be the speculative uses which are made of currency in New York, and an inclination with operators to create a "corner" in the money market in order to facilitate their game.

The Union Bricklayers are on the eight hour strike in Chicago. Over fifty firms of contractors have united in an agreement not to accede to the demands of the strikers under any circumstances.

WELLAND ELECTION.—A meeting of the Reform Convention for this county was held at Shiver's Corners on Monday, which was largely attended. The meeting was very enthusiastic.

The wrangling of local Ministers in Quebec over appointments continues: Mr. Chauveau has succeeded in obtaining a clerkship of the Crown in Chancery for a notorious electioneering agent of his son's in the late Rimouski election for the Local House.

Mr. D. A. Macdonald, M. P. for Glengarry, has sailed for England for the benefit of his health, which has not of late been good.

The Provincial Legislature of British Columbia will be called together on the 17th of December.

Sir Roundell Palmer has been offered the Lord Chancellorship of England, now filled by Lord Heatherly, who is about to resign; but Sir Roundell hesitates to accept the honor, inasmuch as he would have to give up a practice at the Bar of some £15,000 a year, with the prospect of falling back, whenever the Ministry left office, on a pension of £5,000 a year, burdened with a title which it would be expensive to support.

DURING the visit of the His Excellency the Governor-General at the London Fair, he made the purchase of a matched team of horses, said to be the finest in Ontario, the property of Mr. Doty, of Aylmer. They had won the first prize, and are worthy to grace the stables of even royalty itself.

The contract for the building of station houses for the Air Line Railway has been let to Mr. Frank Shanly of Toronto.
