Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is a peculiar modicine. It is carefully prepared from Saraaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Fipsissewa, Juniper Berties, and other well-known and valuable vegetable remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Saraaparilla curative power not possessed by other medicinesi. Te effects remark-basequers where other preparations fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best blood purifier before the public. It eradicates every impurity, and cures Scrofula, Sait Rheum, Bolls, Pimples; all Humors, Dyspepsia, Elilousness, Sick Headache, Indigestion, General Doblitty, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Complaints, overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, and builds up the system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Has met peculiar and unparalleled success at home. Such has become its popularity in Lowell, Mass., where it is made, that whole neighborhoods are taking it at the same time. Lowell druggists sell more of Hood's Sarasparilla than of all other sarasparillas or blood purifiers, sold by druggists. §1; sir for §5. Prepared only by C. I. New System of Baseball Scoring Pro-posed-Death of a Promising Cols -General Sporting News.

Twenty thousand spectators witnessed the great Rugby football match at Headingly, Leeds, last week, when Yorkshire, the champion county, defeated the Best of England by four points to nothing. In the first half D. Jowett, of the Heckmondwikes, scored one try, and in the second half W. Nichol, of the Brighthouses, succeeded in getting a second try, neither being transformed into a goal.

The international fixture between Scotland and Ireland ended in the defeat of the latter by two points to nothing.

NEW RULES FOR SCORING.

WASHINGTON, March 3.— President Young has sent to Chairman Reach of the Playing Rules Committee of the Easeball League, with his approval, a scheme for a new system of scoring victories in championship games, by which a club's percentage will be determined by an aggregate of points depending on the lead it has over its opponents at the end of the game, according to the following table: to the following table:
A lead of one run and less than three one point.

A lead of three runs and less than five, two points.
A lead of five runs and less than seven,

three points.
A lead of seven runs and less than nine,

three points.

A lead of seven runs and less than nine, if a roots.

A lead of nine runs or more, five points.

With this scheme in vogue it is claimed at the interest in the game will be main-ained from beginning to end by players, and that the spectators will be gratified by a contest that loses none of its intensity until the last man is out; hence, there will be no more grounds for complaint that patrons of the rame do not get the worth of their money. It is further claimed that the system is more just and fair to the clubs than the old one. Many a game is won by a "scratch," yet in making up the percentages it counts for as much as one where a club by superior all-around playing, well-sustained, gains a decided victory.

The baseball magnates assembled Thursday in New York behind closed doors. The League presented to A. G. Spaulding a handsome testimonial in the shape of a large album beautifully engrossed and illuminated, expressing the good-will of the League. A new national board of control was elected. Messrs. Young, lyrne and Phelps were chosen, Mr. Rogers having declined to serve.

The Eastern Association was elected to membership under class "A" The schedule was unaminously adopted. The scasson open April 12 and closes Oct 15. There will be 154 games by each club divided into two divisions of 77 games each.

Welshmen and Their Wives Dine and the Queen.

New York, March 3.—The big banquet room of the Metropolitan Hotel was brilliant with bright banners and bunting at the annual dinner of the Society of St. David, the patron saint of Wales. The society's blue banner, with its red dragon, hung behind the chief table. Supporting the great American flag opposite were twin Union Jacks. There were several more American and British flags, and the tricolor was also represented. The St. David's Society is gallant, and there were at least 75 women among the 300 persons present. Some wore bonnets and more didn't, and there was no after-dinner smoking in the banquet room. The menu was printed in Welsh.

The Free Press on the Bogus

List of Voters. Three Months Ago Glad the Courts Had Declared the Bogus

Names Off.

Three Weeks Ago the Names Declared Off and Not Counted by the Conservatives.

When the Court of Queen's Bench, consisting of Chief Justice Armour, Mr. Justice Street and Mr. Justice Falconbridge, gave their decision declaring the Liberal notices to bad Conservative votes to be perfectly valid, the London Free Press, on Nov. 16, 1891, said:

The remark that lawyers are likely to make upon the decision at Toronto is, that while it may not be strictly in accordance with the verbal require ments of the form of notice appended to the Franchise Act of 1885, it is in accordance with the equity of the case; and in this all who are not violent partisans will freely coincide Let us have fair play all round.

The party manipulators declined to accept the view of the Free Press that there should be "fair play all round," and took the case to the Court of Appeal. It was heard by the full Court, consisting of Chief Justice Hagarty, Mr. Justice Osler, Mr. Justice Burton and Mr. Justice Maclennan, and that court on Feb. 18 last unanimously sustained the Liberal notices, the quibbling about which enabled a few of the Conservative leaders to cause all the confusion, expense, ill-feeling, bitterness and uncertainty which attended the recent campaign. On Feb. 19, the Free Press, on behalf of the Conservatives, accepted the decision of the Court of Appeal as just what its party friends wanted, and expressed its assurance that they would win the election on the honest voters' list, and were most anxious that the names should be removed. Here are the remarks of the Free Press on this

The Liberals will seek to make capital out of the decision of the Court of Appeal respecting 220 names on the London voters' list. Let no one be deceived. The Conservatives never for one moment counted on those names, and it was they who pressed for an early decision of the pressed for an early decision of the court, as shown by the Globe's report the other day. Had those names re-mained on, the Conservatives would have stood 534 ahead of the Liberals on the list; but as it is they are quite content with the net gain of 314.

And that there might be no mistaking it verdict, the Free Press added: Let every voter rest assured that the Conservatives wanted these 220 names out of the way before polling

These statements and admissions, made so recently by the recognized organ of Mr. Carling and his friends, may well be pondered by all fair-minded men in connection with more recent developments. They support the view to which every honest man must now be forced-that the bogus names should have never been placed on the list, and that, without them, and by the agency of legitimate votes alone, Mr. Hyman was fairly elected member of Parliament for the city of London.

Cannot Sit as a Choice of Bogus Voters. It is to be earnestly hoped that Hon. John Carting has a majority exclusive of the bogus votes polled in his behalf, or that he will not attempt to use the techni-

Long Session of the Joint Commission—Reported Failure of the Conference.

Washington, March 3.—The joint English and United States commission on the Bering sea fisheries held a long session at the State Department this afternoon, and practically concluded its deliberations.

The members are pledged to secreey, and it is therefore impossible to obtain any official information as to the result of their conferences. There is good reason, however, for the prevalent belief that the commissioners failed entirely in their endeavon, to reach a satisfactory agreement as to the hest method of conducting the seal fishing industry with a view to the preservation of the species.

Canada has already been sufficiently dis-graced. Fair elections are the basis of liberty in a free country, and the jaded con-science of this community would be out-raged by the spectacle of a Cabinet Minister climbing to a seat in Farliament upon votes that were struck off the list by a revising barrister, who certainly did not lean too far to the side of the Opposition.—[Toronto Telegram (Independent Conservative.)
