The General Elections.

Another Ovation for Mr. Laurier in Suburban Montreal.

A Convention Packing Charge Causes Consternation Among Ottawa Conservatives.

Further Divisions in the High Tax Ranks in Toronto.

John Ross Robertson Nominated to Oppose Mr. Coatsworth.

AN OVATION FOR LAURIER.

Montreal, May 19.—Hon. Mr. Laurier's meeting, held at Westmount to-night, was a magnificent success. The Academy Hall, where the meeting was held, was crowded to the doors, and the Liberal leader received a perfect ovation.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Laurier said he thoroughly sympathized with the preferential trade with Britain idea, but he pointed out how impossible it would be to have preferential trade so long as Canada maintained a high tax policy on the lines of that now on the statute book. He supported his view by quotations from Mr. Chamberlain and the London Times. Touching on the school question, he accused the Government of having reached the climax of their bungling in dealing with the matter as they had. The question could only be settled by a man doing what was right, no matter what the consequences might be. (Cheers.) If the Protestants of Quebec ever had a grievance against legislation would they wish the Federal Government to come down with a strong hand on the Provincial Government? Would they not rather have their grievances investigated quietly? (Applause.) Sir Charles Tupper in Winnipeg asked the people not to turn out the Administration and let in a French and Roman Catholic Premier who would give his co-religionists a stronger law than the Government introduced. But, appealing to the prejudices of Roman Catholics in Quebec as to the Protestants of Manitoba, he asked them to keep out the French Roman Catholic who had voted against the Remedial Bill. This was what he called speaking in the same language on every occasion. Mr. Laurier made a spirited defense of himself against the slanders of the Premier.

After he had concluded the cheering lasted for full five minutes.

ANOTHER TORONTO RUPTURE.

Toronto, May 19.—Last night John Ross Robertson, proprietor of the Telegram, and a well-known Conservative, was nominated to contest East Toronto against Mr. Coatsworth, the former Conservative member. The meeting was public and was very largely attended.

It was moved by Mr. E. E. Sheppard, and seconded by Rev. Dr. Milligan, "that in the opinion of this meeting the late representative of East Toronto in the Dominion Parliament, having either wilfully or in ignorance misrepresented this constituency by voting for the coercion of Manitoba, has forfeited our confidence, and we reject his claim for re-election."

The motion carried unanimously.

ANOTHER ROW AT OTTAWA.

Ottawa, May 19.—Another serious blow was given yesterday to the Conservative chances of carrying Ottawa by the action of Mr. Henry Robillard, the late senior member for Ottawa, repudiating the recent Conservative convention. It was a farce, he said, and not representative. There seems to be a great deal of dissatisfaction among local French Conservatives over the selection of Mr. Champagne as the French-speaking candidate, and charges are made that Mr. Champagne packed the convention in his own interests. The dissatisfied ones predict that Mr. Champagne's candidature will result disastrously to the party, and they have arranged for a meeting, which will likely be held in St. Anne's Hall on Wednesday night to consider means to secure Mr. Champagne's withdrawal in favor of either Mr. Durocher or Mr. Robillard. It was stated by a French Conservative yesterday that the meeting would likely draw up a petition to the Premier requesting his influence for the withdrawal of Mr. Champagne. The other nominee, Mr. Hiram Robinson, is not in any better odor, being considered by Conservatives in Upper Town as anything but a winner.

EAST LAMBTON.

Petrolea, May 19.—The outlook for the Liberal cause in East Lambton has never been brighter than at the present time. The riding has been thoroughly organized, and Mr. Fraser, the Reform standard-bearer, is everywhere meeting with remarkable success in his canvass. Many old-time Conservatives are cutting loose from the party, having made up their minds that it is time to call a halt on the carnival of corruption and extravagance that has saddled the country with an enormous debt, which will be largely added to in the event of the Tupper dynasty getting a license to continue their system of plunder. The attempt to raise the "blue ruin" cry in the oil district, which proved so effective at the last election, is falling flat this time. The people appreciate the fact that Mr. Fraser is largely interested in the oil business, and that their interests are entirely safe in his hands. East Lambton can be relied on to give a good account of itself on June 23, when it will resume its allegiance to the Reform party by sending a tried and true Liberal to support Mr. Laurier and Sir Oliver Mowat.

TUPPER'S BRIBES DENOUNCED.

Winnipeg, May 19.—Winnipeg is growing very much excited over the political contest. There is every indication that Mr. Martin will poll two votes to Mr. Hugh John Macdonald's one if the outside vote is not too large. Two leading Presbyterian Ministers came out yesterday flat-footed in their pulpits against Tupperism. Rev. John Hogg, formerly of Toronto, said: "Could anything give clearer evidence of the moral paralysis that has crept upon Canadian people than to see politicians—demagogues every one of them—going through the land debauching electors by promises of enormous expenditure of the people's money here, there and everywhere, as votes may be wanted?" Such men were characterized as bribers of the people.

NOTES AND INCIDENTS.

The Ottawa correspondent of the St. John Telegraph says: From the most reliable quarter I learn that Sir Mackenzie Bowell had an interview with Mr. Chapleau in Montreal a few days ago, and that Mr. Chapleau expressed very grave doubts as to the success of the Tupper combination on June 23. Of course, this was sad news for Sir Mackenzie, who, for publication, says he would like to see the conspirators and traitors win.

The latest Conservative who has decided that he cannot support the Tupper Government is Mr. Thomas B. Smith, ex-M.P.P. for Hants county, N. S. It is likely the country will turn Liberal on June 23.

Mr. Robert Henry opens his campaign at Paris tonight and in Brantford on Friday. Though Mr. Henry failed to appear at Mr. Patterson's meetings, the latter will attend those of Mr. Henry.

Ald. Robinson, of Dorchester, N. B., is the Liberal nominee in Westmoreland.

Hamilton Conservatives will choose their candidate tomorrow evening.

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier will address a meeting in Hull on May 25 on behalf of Mr. Devlin.

C. T. Stenson, of Wottam, school inspector for the district, has been unanimously selected as the Liberal standard-bearer for Richmond and Wolfe, Que. Everything favors Mr. Stenson, and there is a good prospect that he will redeem the seat.

A Quebec dispatch says: Sir Chas. Tupper addressed the electors of Quebec in the Academy of Music. Hon. T. Chase Costigan was chairman, and the hall was packed. The audience at the beginning was wildly enthusiastic, but the enthusiasm rapidly waned. Sir Charles was in poor form. His voice was out of order and his thoughts seemed to wander. Towards the end he admitted that he had lost control of the audience. His address was chiefly made up of denunciation of Mr. Laurier, but many in the audience cheered when the name of the popular leader was heard.

Mr. Foster and Col. Tisdale defended the Ottawa Government at Guelph last night. Every mention of the name "Laurier," was cheered, many in the audience being supporters of the Liberal chief.

Summer Cyclones.

Kansas and Kentucky Swept by Terrific Storms.

Involving Sad Loss of Life and the Destruction of Many Homes.

Louisville, May 19.—A cyclone, which demolished everything in its path, passed over Benton township Sunday. At Elva, the house of Anderson Jones was wrecked, and the entire family, consisting of Anderson Jones, aged 80; Mrs. Jones, 55; a son, 17, and two daughters, 10 and 12, respectively, were killed.

At Sympsonia, two churches, two stores, a school house and several other buildings were destroyed, but no lives lost.

IN KANSAS.

Topeka, Kas., May 19. — Sabetha, a small place northeast of here, was struck by a cyclone late Saturday night and more than 25 buildings demolished. Twenty families were rendered homeless and many people seriously injured.

At Seneca, on Sunday evening, the cyclone wrecked everything in its path. Two children of M. R. Connet, a son of M. Vorhees and the son of Peter Aisenmalhers were killed, and M. F. Vorhees, John Beidshaw, and Alonzo Hawley fatally injured. Many fine buildings are in ruins, including the Grand Opera House and the $50,000 court house. The loss here will be about $200,000. The cyclone lasted about ten minutes.

At Oneida several buildings were destroyed and three children of James Sherrard killed. The west half of the village of Baileyville was swept away, but no one was killed. The damage in this city is over $200,000.

The same cyclone visited Frankfort and wrecked three score of buildings. Reports from the country show that great havoc was wrought and much stock killed. Scores of people are homeless and a number were seriously injured.

At Spring Valley a church, in which were 150 people, was demolished, and many were injured. Rev. Mr. Mason, the pastor, was probably fatally injured.

A cyclone visited North Central Kansas crossed the Blue River at the junction of the Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific Railroad, and passed near the town of Axtell. The hamlet of Bodaville, Riley county, was entirely swept away. Several persons are reported killed and many injured.

A cyclone struck the towns of Reserve and Falls City about 8 o'clock at night. At Reserve ten persons are known to be hurt, and a dozen buildings blown down.

FIRES TODAY.

A Big Horse Roast — Longfellow's Cottage Destroyed.

Northaven, Conn., May 19.—Early this morning fire totally destroyed the large barn of Geo. Ives. One man was burned to death and fifteen horses were roasted.

Nahant, Mass., May 19.—The old summer cottage once occupied by the poet Longfellow on Willow road was burned yesterday afternoon, with five handsome summer residences and their contents, entailing a loss of $100,000. The cottage was unoccupied and quite old, but in the best of condition. It was here the famous poet wrote "The Bells of Lynn." It was owned by his daughter, Miss Alice W. Longfellow, of Cambridge.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

Sir Oliver in Toronto.

Canada's Grand Old Man and His Alliance With Laurier.

He Says He Has Made No Mistake in Going to Ottawa.

And He Believes that the Country Requires and Will Vote for a Change of Administration.

Toronto, May 19.—Sir Oliver Mowat participated in an enthusiastic convention of Liberals in Center Toronto, last night, who met to bring out Mr. Wm. Lount, Q.C., as a candidate for the division.

When Sir Oliver Mowat was presented the people rose to their feet and cheered their very loudest.

"The noblest Roman of them all" shouted an enthusiastic spectator in the gathering. Sir Oliver said:

I do not intend to make a speech tonight. I will have other opportunities of doing that in various parts of the Province, perhaps in other Provinces, and here, too, if you need a speech from me, but I will be glad to say a word or two. I am glad to be able to congratulate you upon the candidate that you have chosen—a very able man, an experienced politician, and one who has proved himself to be faithful all his life to the Liberal party. (Cheers.) As he has been faithful in the past, so, you may rely upon it, he will be faithful in the future. I thank you all for the expressions of goodwill which I have received since I came here tonight. I recognize that as indicating your approval of my having announced my willingness to join Mr. Laurier. (Cheers.) It has been said that I have made a mistake. (Cries of "No, no.") I don't believe I have made a mistake.

A voice—You never did.

Sir Oliver—I hope the result will prove that I can be of some service in Dominion matters, as I believe I have been of some service in Provincial matters. I agree with what previous speakers whom I have heard have said in regard to the expectations that may reasonably be formed in reference to the election on which we are entering. I have had communications and information from every part of the Dominion, and from every part of our own Province in particular, and I am satisfied that if the electors are left to themselves there will be an enormous majority. No cry which has been successful for our enemies in the past any longer has the force that it used to have. More than one election has been won by our opponents claiming that they were the loyal party, and that we were the disloyal party. They make that claim no longer. The people of this country thoroughly understand that there is as much loyalty in the Liberal party as there is in the Conservative party—(cries of "More, more!")—and a great many Liberals think there is a great deal more. I don't contradict them. (Applause.) It is evident that it is out of the question for our opponents to expect to succeed at this election by making the pretence that they have more loyalty than we have. They have won some other elections by raising the National Policy cry. This fails them now, too. It is said, and we have heard it here tonight, that more than half of the capital that is engaged in manufactures is owned by Liberals; that more than half the manufacturers are Liberals; that more than half their employes are Liberals, and that they are going to support the Liberal candidates upon this occasion. (Cheers.) Men who are personally interested have ceased to have that personal interest in the National Policy which at one time they had, and are now satisfied that a revenue tariff such as they will get from Mr. Laurier's Administration will suit them better, and suit the country better—every way better than the protective tariff that we have now. The National Policy has ceased to be a cry on which we can be beaten by our opponents. And, then, the scandals have been coming to light. They have been coming to light ever since before Mr. Mackenzie's time, and ever since his time. If any one of the twenty scandals that have come to light had been a scandal of which the Liberal party were guilty we would have been defeated long ago. They would not have borne one-twentieth of the scandals that have been condoned by the Conservative party. But they are not going to condone wrong-doing any longer, and it will be found in this election that the men who have condoned them will be working side by side and shoulder to shoulder with the Liberals of the country. I congratulate you on that prospect, and if a difficulty has arisen that we did not count upon, that we were not realizing, we must work all the harder to get rid of that, difficulty. We must throw all the more energy into this contest in order that notwithstanding that difficulty, we may give the people the government that they want. Apart from that difficulty, the great majority of the people of this country want a change of Government. The great majority of the people are satisfied that we have a bad Government a Government with a bad policy, and that the interests of the country require that there should be a change. It will be our part to see that an honest electoral expression is given on June 23, and if energy can do it, if hard work can do it, it is for us to see that that energy and hard work are not withheld. You have been showing tonight a great deal of enthusiasm in regard to political matters, and in regard to politicians, too. In speaking of interest, of energy and of hard work, I shall say that I am satisfied from what I have seen and heard tonight that the best advice I will be able to give to other meetings I will hold in other parts of the country is that they should show the same enthusiasm as is felt and shown by the electors of Center Toronto. (Cheers.)

TRAGEDY IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, May 19. — Jean Baptist Rousseau was shot and killed yesterday by his brother-in-law, Paul Pons, at the residence of the latter. Rousseau, it appears, had for a long time abused his wife, and finally, on the advice of her relatives, she had left him and gone to live with Pons, who was married to her sister. Yesterday the matter came before the recorder, and his decision being against Rousseau, the latter became mad with rage, and kept on abusing his wife, and brother-in-law all the way to Pons' residence, where he made a terrific attack on Pons, who finally pulled out a revolver which he carried, and emptied its five chambers into his brother-in-law's body. Rousseau was taken to the hospital, and died immediately. Pons has been arrested.

HER AWFUL CRIME.

Woman Accused of Throwing a Kiss at a Man.

Wichita, Kan., May 19. Mrs. M. Ashcraft, a widow, has been arrested on a warrant sworn out by T. A. Fawcett, a tailor, who charges that she threw a kiss while he was with his wife, and that it was done with malicious intent. Mrs. Ashcroft says the kiss was meant for Mrs. Fawcett.

TWO FATALITIES.

Boy Fatally Injured at Wallaceburg—A Sombra Township Lad Killed.

Chatham, May 18.—Geo. Warmer, a Wallaceburg boy, was caught in the swing of the Sydenham River bridge yesterday and received fatal injuries.

A young lad named John Ross, of Sombra township, was instantly killed today while working on his father's farm. A land roller ran over him.

SAVED TEN LIVES.

Constable Hazell, of Hamilton Makes an Heroic Rescue.

Hamilton, May 19.—Constable Hazell, of the Beach, and three others effected a heroic rescue of ten young men who were capsized from a yacht on the bay. A terrible gale was blowing at the time and few boats were out. The rescurers put out in two skiffs and arrived just in time to take off the ten men who were almost exhausted from clinging to the upturned yacht.

RUSHING FAST

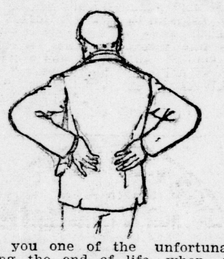
To Untimely Graves!

SAFETY AND SECURITY FOR YOUNG AND OLD.

Paine's Celery Compound the Only Cure for Kidney Troubles.

GET THE KIND THAT RENEWS HEALTH AND LIFE.

Do Not Allow Your Dealer to Offer You a Substitute for Paine's Celery Compound.



Are you one of the unfortunates nearing the end of life, when you should be strong and vigorous? If the grave is opening for you, the fault is your own. Your symptoms plainly indicate the terrible and deadly kidney disease is making rapid headway. Neglect these symptoms for a few short weeks of months, and your condition will be one of great peril.

Think for a moment! You have pain in the small of the back, often acute and severe; a disordered condition of the urine, sometimes pale in color; often it is brick-colored, and settles with mucus. You have also a feeling of lassitude and weakness, and you are unable to get through with your everyday work, be it mental or physical. All these varied symptoms cause a serious derangement of other important organs.

Years of experience and severe testing have fully demonstrated the truth so firmly established, that Paine's Celery Compound is the only cure for kidney disease—the only medicine that can save the victims of the trouble from untimely graves.

If you value health and life, do not allow any dishonest dealer to sell you what he calls SOMETHING JUST AS GOOD, in place of Paine's Celery Compound. No other medicine in the world can give such guarantees of perfect cure as Paine's Celery Compound, and no other can show such a vast array of honest testimonials.

Mr. H. Ball, of Chatham, Ont., writes as follows:

"I was so seriously ill I was obliged to take to my bed, where I laid for four months. The doctors here and in Toronto said my trouble was Addison's disease of the kidneys, and told me I would never walk again. In November of the same year I commenced to use Paine's Celery Compound. After having used a number of bottles I was enabled to attend to business, and felt like a new man. Before using the compound I was very much reduced in flesh; today I weigh over 200 pounds. I can affirm with confidence and honesty that Paine's Celery Compound saved my life."
