The legislation which the Liberal convention recommends and which a ing "Industrial Opportunities," of Liberal Government will adopt, does not go so far as radical temperance men desire. Those of them who were members of that convention tried to have their views indorsed and failed. They are now in face of the accomplished fact. They know precisely what is the minimum of legislation they can expect from a Liberal administration, and they know the Conservative party offers them absolutely nothing. They must admit that the Libadvance. Central Alberta's Growth.

The annual report of the Calgary Board of Trade for the year 1903-1904 has just come to hand and is replete with information respecting the growth and development of this progressive western city, as well as Central Alberta, appropriately referred to as the "sirloin of Canada."

The assessment of Calgary has I had been overbold; grown from $1,876,000 in 1896 to $2,778,000 For on her breast my pale rose lay The assessment of Calgary has in 1903, and the total annual expenditure from $34,000 to $70,000.
