Once the even-tempered Judge Phelan in- dicated his displeasure at the fre- quent wrangles in no uncertain man- ner. The introduction of more surgical instruments into the case was stren- uously opposed by the defence to no avail. "Your honor. I want the jurors to see the exhibits," announced the prosecutor. "You can do so subject to my ex- ception," interjected Attorney Lodge. Dr. Stapleton at the solicitation of the state explained the use of each of the instruments. Objects to Knots. Surgeon's knots, their use and kinds also came in for another lengthy dis- constant. The witness was required to demonstrate his ability by tying a knot to Attorney Lodge's arm. The knots with which the sacks containing Maybelle Millman's body were tied were them produced. At torney Lodge objected to their intro- duction and the questions which the prosecutor asked cencerning them contending that this was improper re- direct examination. The objection was not sustained and Lodge took an other exception.	Dyspepsia is the prevailing malady of civilized life. It is largely due to gross errors in diet, over-eating, too free indul- gence in stimulants and over-taxing the stomach with indigestible food, eating too rapidly without chewing the food suffi- ciently, indulging in hot biscuits, pastry, pickles, confectionery, etc. Burdock Blood Bitters has an establish- ed reputation, extending over thirty-four years, as a positive cure for dyspepsia in all its forms, and from all diseases arising from it. Mrs. Herman Dickenson, Benton, Can Eat Now. Bitters and find that few medicines can give such relief in dyspepsia and sto- mach troubles. I was troubled for a number of years with dyspepsia and could get no relief until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters. I took three bottles and became cured and I can now eat anything without it hurting me. I will highly recommend it to all who are troubled with stomach trouble." For sale by all dealers.
