Large Shipments From West Expected to Glut Toronto Market.

Hay and live hogs comprised the offerings on the local market this morning, twelve loads of the former being on hand, and meeting a keen demand at prices ranging from $13.50 to $15.50 per ton. There were no oats or straw offered, small shipment of live hogs was made, the ruling price being $8.25 per hundred-weight. Buyers claim that the price will be less than $8 per hundredweight shortly, due to the large shipments coming down from the west and glutting the Toronto market, which rules all the live hog mar-

Thee." Gathered at the city hall were perhaps 10,000 spectators. At the navy yard the ceremonies, as arranged, were simple and comparatively brief. A hymn by the battleship bands opened them. Next came an invocation by Chaplain William G. Cassard, of Annapolis; then President Wilson's address. This was followed by prayers by . Chidwick, chaplain of the Maine. Three volleys fired by a detachment of marines from the Texas, and "taps" by a bugler concluded the services. Marks of Respect. It was just 10:50 when the procession reached the navy yard. President Wilson, Secretary Daniels, Governor Glynn and the others on the President's stand, stood bareheaded while the coffins were St. Paul.

front of the stand. The President had prepared no formal address. He said in part: "I know that the feelings which characterize all who stand about me are not Philadelphia feelings that can be expressed in elo- Oceanic..... quence or oratory. For my own part I baye a mixture of feelings. The feeling Bronwen... that is uppermost is one of profound grief Gaspesien...

thing. Men are performing it in the ordinary walks of life, and they are making sacrifices, but what gives them peuliar distinction is that they did not give their lives for themselves, but rave their lives for us, because we, as a nation, called upon them. Want to Serve.

"We have gone down to Mexico to serve mankind if we can find the way. We don't want to fight the Mexicans, we want to serve them. "A war of aggression is not a thing in which it is proud to die, but a war of service is a war in which it is a proud thing to die." The President referred then to the cos nopolitan personnel of the victims. "I listened to the list," he added, with profound feeling, "because they were not Irishmen, or Germans or Hebrews when they went to Vera Cruz. They were Americans, and no matter where their people came from they did the things that were American, War Is a Symbol. "War is only a sort of dramatic representation, a symbol of a thousand forms of duty. I never was in battle or under fire, but I 'ancy it is just as hard to do your duty when men are sneering at you, for when they shoot at you they take your natural life, and when they neer at you they wound your heart. "As I think of these spirits that have gone from us, I know that the way is cleaner for the future, for they have shown us the way."

British Churches Join in Special Services in Aid of Blind Institute.

[Canadian Press.] Montreal, May 11 .- Special church services yesterday formed the latest phase of the campaign of the National Blind Institute to raise $650,000 with which to thor

Jewish synagogues. The Archbishop of Canterbury, who was surprised that the obvious duty of assistng the blind had hitherto been so indequately discharged, authorized a special prayer for the day. The Bishop of London, preaching in St. Paul's Cathedral, suggested that the appeal be made ar annual one, a suggestion which was also made in churches in all denominations.

It is estimated that seven million people attended the various services, and the collections are expected to be very large
