found on the ice ponds two years ago by the Orient juniors, slipped into left wing. And what started out like a makeshift arrangement ended up by turning in the nicest hour of hockey that's been displayed in this center of culture for years.

From the time, Gilles, just a minute after the face-off, slipped down the left-hand side of the frozen aqua and beat Hollins with a shot nobody but a four-legged man could have stopped, the largersoil team were bottied up aimost competely, and looked like a let of goldfish trying to find a passage out. McKay was the cork and shewed London fans what a hockey player looks like in three reels and couple of cuis. True ingersoil gurgled out several times, but they didn't have anything freedom for any length of time, except for about five minutes in the last stanza, when they peppered Reuter with shots that had the London net-minder busier than a biliposter in a gale of wind.

Lordion had one forward line, and that was McKay, and two defence lines most of the time. What McKay didn't do in the way of a chop-check, poke-check and drag-check that will have the O. H. A. widening their rinks when it gets property developed, Eurgess and Cooney came on and performed, and when they laid off checking and varied the program with an attack, a two-man combination, sometimes Gillies and Murray, other times Burgess and Cooney, salied through the Ingersoil defence or past it down the boards and unloosed shots at Hollins that had the visiting goalie twitching from habit Gillies and Murray made the most dangerous looking defence pair seen here since the days of Bill Borland and company. They went down time after time, always with a trailer somewhere on the job, and they went down the net. This was in fourteen minutes. A moment afterwards Petrie, on a voyage of discovery down around center loe, grabbed a loose puck and bounced one down at Reuter, standing well back into the net. The puck drapped to the coring the fire passage.

Little Air Even.

Ingersoll hardly got out for air in the second period start before McKay, starting a rush, overskated the disc, recovered it, and nonchantily flipped in a shot that hit the top of the net, rolled down and caused an argument. Hollins missed his swing on the puck and missed another he simed at the goal judge, but the counter was tallied up, as London's third. Andrews was subbing, when two or three good London attacks failed after fetting through. He was showing well with a combination of poke-check and Jeffries crouch when he grabbed the rubber from the face-oif and bounced one in at eleven minutes. London were all over the Ingersoll outfit like a blanket, showing everything versatile in the way of an attack without much results in the way of goals. Mays, subbing, was protested by Ingersoll, but allowed to show later. McKay nearly scored from a swiping drive, and a moment atterwards slice-checked his way through the whole Ingersoil team and clapped in number five at seventeen minutes. Gillies was out with a cramp in the leg the rest of the period.

Mckay started out the third period by messing up everything ingersol thought of starting for about eight minutes. The visitors overthowed then for about five minutes, during which time they ga. Reuter some hard ones to look after. From a mix-up back of the London goal, the puck was passed to Cooney. H. Petrie sneaked in behind him, and while he momentarily hesitated, stole the rubber and beat Reuter with a clean effort.

Giants' "Unies" Will Be Riot of Color

THE New York Giants will not sport the title World Champions across their chest next summer.

McGraw originated the idea years ago and it didn't make much of a hit with fandom or players. Consequently it went into the discard. The Cleveland club dug up the idea after beating Brooklyn, and so lettered the uniforms of the Indians. The idea got the Cleveland players many a "razzing" last summer, in games in which they were being badly beaten. However, the fans will know the Giants are in the park when they trot on the field. World Champions' title will be missing, but the uniforms will be a riot of color. The home suits will be white with a violet stripe and the initials "N.Y." on the sleeve. The stockings will be red, white and blue and the cap white with a blue peak.

The road uniform will be grey and the word "Giants" across the shirt fronts. Some rather fancy trimmings will liven up the sombre grey.

Rheumatism Left Him As If by Magic!

'Inner Mysteries" Reveals Startling Facts Overlooked By Doctors and Scientists For Centuries

"I am eighty-three years old and doctored for rheumatism ever since I came out of the army over fifty years ago," writes J. B. Ashelman. "Like many others, I spent money freely for so-called 'cures,' and I have read about 'Uric Acld' until I could almost taste it. I could not sleep nights or walk without pain; my hands were so sore and stiff I could not hold a pen. But now, as if by magic, I am again in active business and can walk with ease active business and can walk with ease or write all day with comfort. Friends are surprised at the change HOW IT HAPPENED.

Mr. Ashelman is only one of thousands who suffered for years, owing to the teneral belief in the old, false theory Mr. Asheiman is only one of thousands who suffered for years, owing to the general belief in the old, false theory that "Uric Acid" causes rheumatism. This erroneous belief induced him and legions of unfortunate men and women to take wrong treatments. You might just as well attempt to put out a fire with oil as to try and get rid of your rheumatism, neuritis and like complaints by taking treatments supposed to drive the Uric Acid out of your blood and body. Many physicians and scientists now know that Uric Acid never did, never can and never will cause rheumatism; that it is a natural and necessary constituent of the blood; that it is found in every new-born babe, and that without it we could not live! These statements may seem strange to some folks, who have all along been led to believe in the old "Uric Acid" humbug. It took Mr. Ashelman 50 years to find out this truth. He learned how to get rid of the true cause of his rheumatism, other disorders, and recover his strength from "The Inner Mysteries," a remarkable book now being distributed free by an authority who devoted over twenty years to the scientific study of this particular trouble.

NOTE: If any reader of The Advertiser wishes the book that reveals these facts regarding the true cause and cure of rheumatism, facts that were overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries past, simply send a postcard or letter to H. B. Clearwater, No. 43rd street, Hallowell, Maine, and it will be sent by return mall without any charge whatever. Cut out this notice lest you forget!
