

The ADVERTISER'S PICTORIAL PAGE

Motor boats and skiffs tied up for the winter on the Hudson River.

A strenuous method of improving your beauty, used in some London beauty shops. The young woman lying on her back is having her neck lines reduced, the operator pulling the band around the patient's neck, with the patient trying to refrain from sitting up.

A divorce, according to reports, is imminent between Crown Prince Carol of Rumania and his wife, formerly Princess Helen of Greece. The Princess, it is said, is making preparations to file an action against her husband in Paris. She is believed to have returned to her home in Athens with her five months' old child. This photo of the Prince and Princess was taken a few months ago.

Crew of the Speejacks, the 98-foot gasoline yacht which has just returned to Chicago after a tour of the world.

Mount Etna isn't always hot. This expedition, led by Signor Romaonoli, the first to explore its crater, found deep snows and bitterly cold weather on the mountain.

A bobby at Redhill, England, helps to carry the Christmas turkeys.

Princess Henriette, youngest daughter of the ex-Kaiser's new wife, and her nurse.

An automobile built of snow at Davos, Switzerland.

Mrs. Olympia K. Moore, considered one of the most beautiful women in the Hawaiian Islands, who has just secured a divorce from her husband, an officer in the American army.

General Menocal, ex-president of Cuba, returning from a European trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Inokenti Tomacheff and their two children, who have arrived in San Francisco after an exciting escape from the bolshevists in Russia. Mrs. Tomacheff was a supporter of Kolchak, and was confined in a soviet prison at Irkutsk.

"Newington Basham," winner of the first prize at the Bulldog Club of Canada's show in Montreal. It is owned by Witty Warren.

What is said to be the largest single lump of coal ever mined is being put on exhibition in the Utah state capital. It weighs 22,000 pounds and is a Utah product.

There has been a smallpox scare in England. Sir David Serjeant, public vaccinator for Camberwell, 92 years old, has been carrying on the duties of his office.

Mrs. Jack Barnato, a 22-year-old wealthy widow, married to Lord Plunket at Denham Bucks.