

The London Advertiser

LONDON, ONT., SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1925.

Mrs. (Dr.) J. Fred Kennedy, of London, formerly Miss Catherine Blanche Tufford, of St. Thomas, and her bridal party. From left to right, they are Miss Ruth LaDore, Windsor; Miss Aileen Kennedy, Wingham; Miss Helen Greenizen, Petrolia, maid of honor; the bride; Miss Norma Bruce, St. Thomas; Miss Olive Allen, Goderich. The pretty twin flower girls, Dorothy and Barbara Witt, of Detroit, are standing in front.

A new picture of Norma Talmadge

Advertiser Photo Card

London Normal School

Mrs. Alexina Mann, of Hamilton, junior past president of the I.O.O.F. Rebekah Assembly of Ontario, who was a delegate to the recent Eastern Star convention in London.

—Portrait by Sanders Studio.

Miss Isabel Mortimer, a recent London graduate in reading and dramatic art. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Mortimer, Central avenue, London.

—Portrait by Sanders Studio.

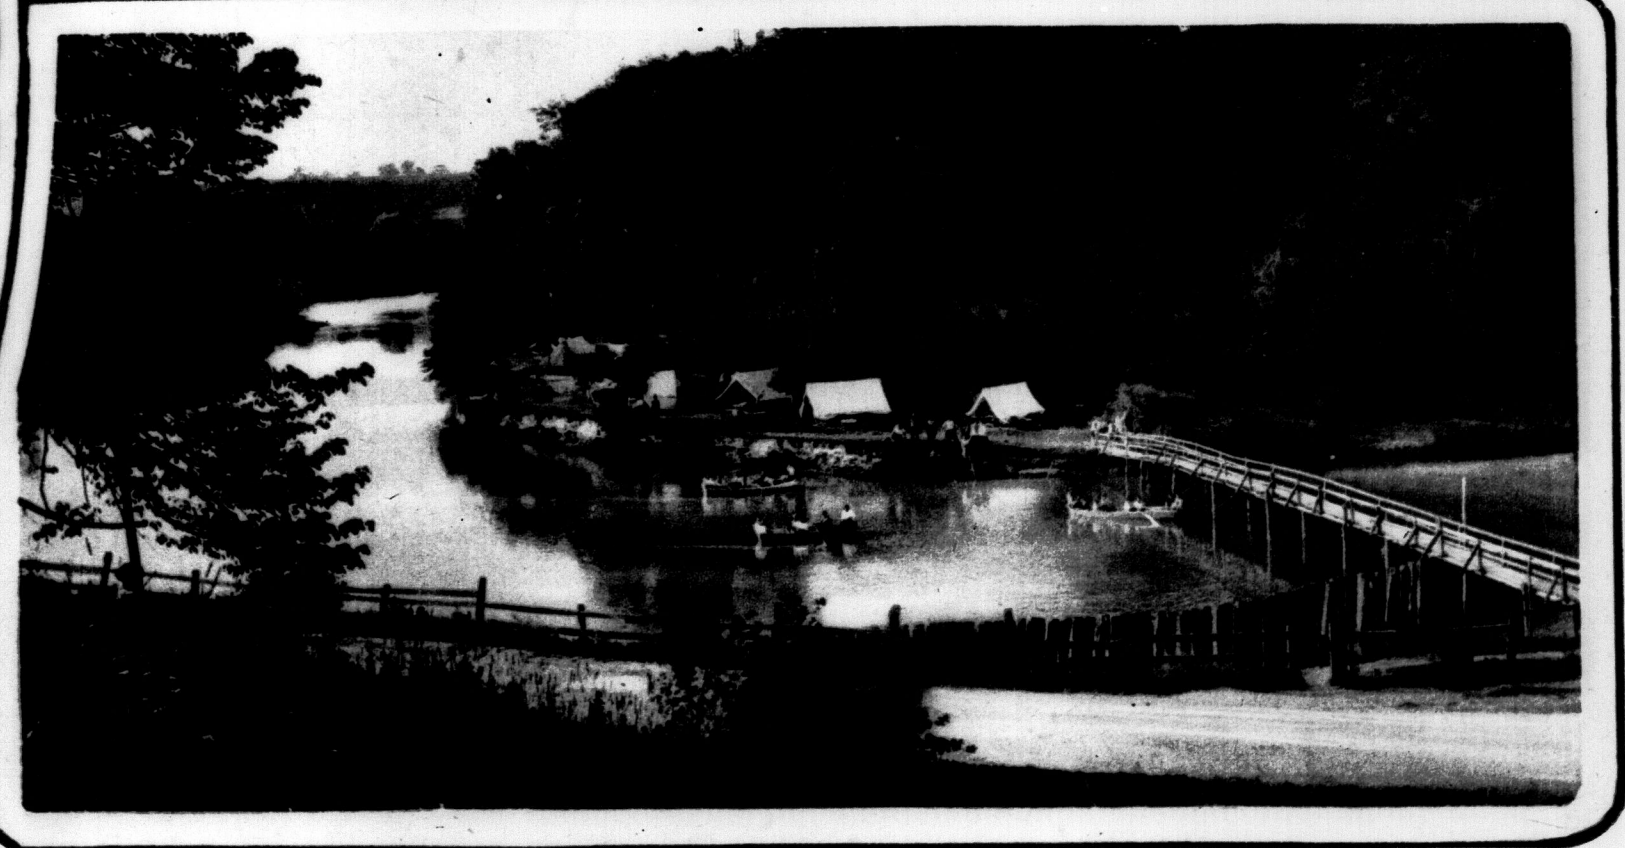

Mr. Leon W. Adams, popular young Londoner, and his bride, who was formerly Miss Mildred Margaret Waldo, of New York city.

—Photo by Hines.

Brilliantly painted chiffon on a beige background

Beautiful Orendaga, the summer camp of the London Y. W. C. A. at Port Bruce