POULTRY SHOW OPENS WITH MORE THAN 800 ENTRIES

Asks More Interest in Such Events At London Associa-Canadian Press Despatch.
Bracebridge, Ont, Nov. 9.—
Thomas Ryan, aged 55, a resident of Kearney, was shot and instantly killed at Sand Lake Wednesday, and his body was brought into Kearney yesterday.

Ryan had been putting out the dogs on the runways, and told a couple of other members of his party that he would be at a certain point in an hour. He reached the designated spot in a half-hour, and moving through the bush was mistaken for a deer and was shot and killed, the bullet entering his right side below tion Exhibition.

CHILDREN VISIT

Stating that such shows and exhibitions should receive more support than at present, Mayor George Wen in the absence of the Hon. J. S. Martin, minister of agriculture, officially opened the 26th annual show of the London Poultry and Pet Stock Association at Queen's Park last More than 800 entries were re-reled for the show and practically all of them were in place when his worship gave his address. The judging had not been completed, about 50 per cent remaining to be done today.

According to President James Andicasses the students are conditionally all class. drewes, the attendance was very good and large crowds are expected today and Monday. The birds are in fine condition and are placed so as to first in all classes.

has characterized the occasion in former years. Although the parade of city troops all over London will be impressive, no noisy demonstrations will, naturally, be permitted. Except for an inspiring march past and parade of soldiers and former soldiers representing all local military and veteran organizations, next Sun-day will bear the stamp of an ordinary Sabbath. London elergymen plan to deliver sermons on subjects dealing with developments of the great war, but in every other respec the day will be lacking the earmarks of such an important anniversary. The parade of troops will eclipse any seen in this city since the war. Morning service will be held in the Cronyn Memorial Church for the Royal Canadian Regiment. At 3:30 p.m. those taking part in the parade will assemble outside the Public Will assemble outside the Funda Utilities Building. They will march up Wellington street, Central avenue, through Victoria Park, and past the Soldiers' Monument, where Brig.-Gen. King, D. S. O., will receive the salute. At 4 o'clock the entire parade will march into St. Paul's Cathedral, march into St. Paul's Cathedral, where a special service will be conducted by Very Rev. Dean Tucker.

Headed by veterans of '66, '85, the South African war, and the great war, a procession of military and semi-military organizations, each with its band, will attract onlookers from every part of the city. The R. C. R. permanent, force attachment, C. R., permanent force attachment, 1st Hussars, 12th Battery, W. O. R., 2nd Machine Gun Brigade, Boy Scouts, and Nursing Sisters will be Invitations have been extended to patients of Byron and Westminster hospitals to take part.

The service at St. Paul's will be concluded with the last post, reveille by drums of the R. C. R., benediction, the national anthem, and recessional.
