LET THIS BE AN "I WILL YEAR"

"I can't"---"I don't know"---"I am afraid" died with 1914.

"I will" can accomplish anything and fears nothing. Business is going to be good for "I will." He will make it so.

Life will be happy for "I will"---he demands it.

"I will" is aggressive, determined, sure.

He will be 1915's best newspaper advertiser---for "I will" always think first and chooses the best way.

Prominent Public Man is Dead

Well-Known Newspaper Man Dies in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Jan. 2.—Hon. Treffe Berthiaume, a member of the Legislature, council of Quebec and other of the good offices of the French Canadian papers, died suddenly this morning of heart trouble.

Card of Thanks

Ladies and Gentlemen:— Kindly accept my sincere thanks, you electing my Mayor by such a splendid majority. There are so many who gave me their unselfish help that I particularly desire to express my gratitude to all the workers who so nobly assisted me.

Yours for good government,
J. E. HETT.

To The Electors

TO THE ELECTORS

To the electors who so kindly supported me at the polls yesterday, I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation.

I need scarcely say that the result was unlooked for, various causes can be assigned. I cannot consider the defeat a personal one, believing the reasons to be more far reaching. "Time may tell" in any case let us hope that our fair city and its enterprising people may continue to prosper as heretofore. Thanking you again, I am yours very truly,
A. L. BREITHAUPT.

The Man Who Does Things

Who Put "try" in Industry.

Mr. W. G. Weichel M. P., Secures 'Big Army Order'

For a Berlin Manufacturer.

The federal member for North Waterloo has again scored a bull's eye on the trade target. As the result of his efforts he secured for the L. McBrine Co. of Berlin an army order which totals well over $100,000 in value.

The Russian government has placed a large order for army saddles in Canada, using the good offices of the Canadian government in placing them. Mr. Weichel, accompanied by Mr. L. McBrine spent the best part of last week in Ottawa trying to secure a share of it for this city.

A telephone message this morning from the Department conveyed the good news that the firm named had been awarded the contract of supplying 1300 army saddles, at a cost of $72,500 each, to the Russian government. This means that $94,250 will be expended within the next few months among Berlin mechanics and supply houses.

The member has scored again and clinched his title "The Man Who Does Things."

By pulling together and with his assistance, we can keep Berlin on the industrial map.

With all due respect to the Judge, we still think our contention is correct.

"As I look upon the matter it is my duty to give effect in the largest way possible to the provision of Section 248 which enactment was intended to enable the council to ascertain what, if anything affects the good government of the city, and what, if anything, is wrong in the conduct of the public business of the city, with a view to removing what is evil and preventing a recurrence of it, and promoting what is good."

We relied on this case or the argument before Mr. Justice Middleton, and we believe it to be sound law.

Yours truly,
Mijlar, Sims & Gregory.

Dr. C. F. Magee, of Vancouver, against whom serious charges were made by a former housekeeper, and in whose case the jury failed to agree at two trials, has entered an appeal to the Attorney-General of British Columbia for a stay in his trial. Most of the evidence has been in his favor.

Several Attacks Were Repulsed

ALLIES HAVE MAINTAINED THEIR POSITIONS

PARIS, Jan. 2.—The afternoon official statement says: "The enemy did not continue his attacks at St. Georges yesterday. Elsewhere he delivered series attacks which were repulsed with ease. At one point, the Germans blew up two French caissons and the French in return demolished the enemies' trenches at Parvillers and La Boisselle. We have maintained our positions in Argonne, Woivre and the Vosges and gained ground at several other points. At Steinbach our troops occupied three new lines of houses, inflicting severe losses on enemy."

HOW THE FORMIDABLE WAS SUNK

PARIS, Jan. 2.—The report current, concerning the British battleship Formidable, is that she was torpedoed off Portsmouth by a German submarine. This position of the catastrophe agrees better with the statements that members of the crew were rescued by a Torbay trawler, than does the station off the Belgian coast.

War Expert on the Situation

ENEMY'S TROOPS ADMIT WAR WILL BE PROLONGED

LONDON, Jan. 2.—The British "Eye Witness" in a despatch dated December 31, says: "Although German prisoners appear gloomy this is not true of their troops as a whole. The seriousness of their position has not been brought home to them. They believe the Russians have been decisively defeated that England is decadent and France exhausted and ready for peace, but they are aware that the war will last longer than was expected."

RUSSIANS MAKING SOME PROGRESS

PETROGRAD, Jan. 2.—The Russian official statement published last night recounts the repulse of German attacks at several points and an energetic attack on Austrians resulting in the capture of several thousand prisoners and some war material.

The German inactivity at Warsaw is explained by the fact that they are busy fortifying captured Polish territory, which is expected to make as difficult invasion as is German
