

Voters League In Session

Committee of Aldermen Listen to Talk on Iron and Steel

Victorians Not So Far Behind United States Neighbors In This Industry

The committee of the Aldermanic Board, Aids, Williams, Vincent and McCandless, met the League of the voters in session last evening...

T. C. Sorby was voted to the chair, the secretary, Mr. Morley, reading the minutes of the previous meeting...

C. H. Lugin brought up a suggestion made by a gentleman, that the great difficulty that would be met in starting the manufacture of steel...

H. C. G. Prior stated that at Port Townsend they used charcoal, hence the high price of their product...

C. H. Lugin pointed out that the reports of the Board of Commerce and the Ontario would be the amount of all the different imports of every country in the world...

Mr. Morley thought it was a mistake to think that the Chinese could swamp the market...

Mr. Winkle stated that it was proposed even now to import British Columbia iron ore...

C. H. Lugin moved that five more members be appointed to the committee, in order to meet and talk over the matter with the Board of Trade and Commerce...

Senator Macdonald said that it would be impossible to start the industry in this province unless a Dominion bounty was paid...

Wretched Hot Weather Sufferers. Paine's Celery Compound SHOULD BE USED IN JULY AND AUGUST.

The extraordinary variable spring and early summer weather of the present year has been the cause of a large amount of sickness in every part of our country...

The use of Paine's Celery Compound soon brings a return of true physical strength; the nerves will be fortified; the blood will be made pure and richer; digestion will be corrected...

Prompt Action Is Necessary

Victorians Must Take Steps to Establish the Iron Industry

Opinion of a Prominent Mining Man on This Important Question

Speaking of the prospects for establishing an iron industry in British Columbia, a prominent mining man has given the question careful consideration...

While the conditions for establishing iron works here are not so favorable as they are elsewhere, it is not without its element of danger...

W. K. Ealing, of the Trail Creek News, asserts that the province exports for a year from the Le Roi mine, $1,000,000 in iron ore...

There are three questions to be considered in connection with this matter, continued the Colonel's informant...

Arrangements are being made for the installation of a 40-stamp mill at the Camborne group, Goldfields. The ore is being raised by a hoist...

In the homes of Canada and the United States the names of the great physicians and their remedies are well known...

Some people seem to think that it is too much to expect that a single Ointment will cure every form of piles...

On March 1, 1902, we received the following letter from Mr. Walker, an intimate as to the condition of the most distressing form. He writes: "I have written you before that I was a permanent cure. This you can see from the fact of the suffering people. There are several people who have been cured of very severe piles by using this Ointment."

Water Still High. Winnipeg, Man., July 8.—(Special.)—High water West of Medicine Hat, Passengers are being provided for at several points along the river. The water is reported to be several feet above the track at one point near Calgary.

Roads, Streets and Bridges

Special Meeting of Aldermen Refuses to Entertain Mr. Mohun's Plans

Estimated Total Cost of James Bay Works Less Than 1,000,000

A special meeting of the board of aldermen was held yesterday afternoon to consider the plans for the improvement of the roads, streets and bridges in the city...

The council then turned to the subject of the Revenue by-law. It being the opinion of the city solicitor that the proposed by-law as framed would be of insurance solicitors, the by-law was adopted and finally passed without further delay...

MINING NOTES. W. K. Ealing, of the Trail Creek News, asserts that the province exports for a year from the Le Roi mine, $1,000,000 in iron ore...

Arrangements are being made for the installation of a 40-stamp mill at the Camborne group, Goldfields. The ore is being raised by a hoist...

In the homes of Canada and the United States the names of the great physicians and their remedies are well known...

Some people seem to think that it is too much to expect that a single Ointment will cure every form of piles...

On March 1, 1902, we received the following letter from Mr. Walker, an intimate as to the condition of the most distressing form. He writes: "I have written you before that I was a permanent cure. This you can see from the fact of the suffering people. There are several people who have been cured of very severe piles by using this Ointment."

Water Still High. Winnipeg, Man., July 8.—(Special.)—High water West of Medicine Hat, Passengers are being provided for at several points along the river. The water is reported to be several feet above the track at one point near Calgary.

They Thought It Was Tracy

Excitement Caused by Chase of Man Who "Looked Like a Murderer"

The Provincial Police Go Out to Pursue and Disarm the Pursuers

Along the Goldstream road there was great excitement on Tuesday afternoon, involving Seattle, was reported, who is believed to be the murderer of the late Mayor of Seattle...

The following letter from Sir A. Conan Doyle appears in the London Times: "The time has come when I can give those who subscribe to my work, and inform me of the progress of the work, the money which has been entrusted to me."

The public responded to our appeal most generously, and sent in over $2,000. The English edition, but even so, the sum was not sufficient to meet the expenses of the work...

"Why on earth didn't you stop Tracy?" said the man who had been chased. "I didn't know him," said Mrs. Demers. "But he has just passed here in the street."

"Well, you ought to have stopped him, Tracy," said the man from Parson's Bridge. "These fellows are not to be trusted. They are all after the money."

"I don't know who they are," said the man from Parson's Bridge. "I only know that they are all after the money. They are all after the money."

"I don't know who they are," said the man from Parson's Bridge. "I only know that they are all after the money. They are all after the money."

"I don't know who they are," said the man from Parson's Bridge. "I only know that they are all after the money. They are all after the money."

LABOR TROUBLE ON THE COAST. Major and Telegraphers Recognition of Wages. Winnipeg, July 12.—U. R. gives recognition to trainmen, firemen and the system, there is like trouble. On Monday the officers of the different unions were met by Mr. G. R. Peckham, of St. Louis.

THE HOT WATER TEST. Makes better acquainted with their resources of strength and endurance. Many find that they are not so well off as they thought they were. They are overworked and depressed by the heat. The water is not only refreshing, but it is also a tonic. It is a tonic for the system. It is a tonic for the system.

FARMER—KILLED. Falls Under Wheels of Wagon Crossing Railway Track. Stratford, Ont., July 8.—David W. Clark, a prominent farmer, was instantly killed this morning by falling under the wheels of his wagon while crossing the railway track.

WESTMINSTER TEAM. Reach Winnipeg and Wait for Waters to Subside. Winnipeg, July 8.—(Special.)—Members of the Westminster team, who were on their way to the West, reached here today from the East. They stay here until the damages in the local districts West have been repaired.

STOVE MOUN. International Convention Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh, Pa., July 11.—The Stove Moun convention, which was held at North America, was held here today. The convention was held here today. The convention was held here today.

FORBIDDEN Kitchens

Lands in England a Magnificent Welcome

Visits the King in Palace and His Majes

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.

London, July 12.—Lord Kitchener, who arrived at Paddington on Tuesday, was warmly welcomed by the King and Queen. He was accompanied by his wife and children. He was accompanied by his wife and children.