TWENTY-SEVEN DROWNED OFF THE VIRGINIA COAST.

The Spanish-American Treaty-Grover

BANTIMORE, Dec. 12 -Officers of the steamer M. L. Weems, which arrived from Rappahannock river, Va., report fearful loss of life among colored oystermen in that river in the storm of Tuesday last. About twenty five colored men were out in boats tonging for oysters. The gale capsized almost all of them. The men were thrown into rough water and were unable to swim to shore. Many clung to boats for a time, but were finally washed away and drowned. Very few escaped. Eleven bodies have been recovered already, and as many more are said to be missing.

LATER—Additional particulars state fitteen cances started to go to the schooner to sell their oysters when the storm struck them. There were three or four white men among the party. The whole number drowned was twenty-seven. Two more bodies have been recovered. Rappahannock river, Va, report fearful and Buffalo, as was evinced by the savage remark of the old roundeman on the corner of Main and Senecs, who, when told of the ponded to lists of stolen goods received some time ago from a jewelry establishment in Newark, N. J. Pinkerton was unable to find the person from whom the jewelry was stolen. The telegram reads: "Impossible to send persons to identify jewelry if Marks fails to do so, and there is no chance of extradition." Mandelbaum was, therefore, dismissed. The Mandelbaums and young Stroude will stay in Hamilton until their jewelry trouble is settled. The inspector of customs has gone to Ottawa to consult with the authorities there, as to what is to be done with the jewelry. The decision will not be known for some days.

There is no establishment on King street better known than China Hall. Glover Harrison, its proprietor, is known from one end of the province to the other as the leading man in the trade. His meaning. It celebrates his twenty fifth anniversary as a bishop; it also gives his grace a boom for further promotion. Canada ought soon to be entitled to a cardinal's red hat; indeed it is said that two or three are shortly to be distributed in from one end of the province to the other as the leading man in the trade. His stock of china and glassware this year surpasses that of any other. Mr. Harrison personally selects his goods in Europe, and their quality and beauty cannot be
