The Ameer of Afghanistan in Arms Against the Czar: LONDON, March 22.—Advices from Cabul state that the Ameer has sent printed circu-lars to the tribes of Kohistan urging them to join him in a holy war against Russia. The circular denounces the Czar as a tyrant and a gromise-breaker. It warns the tribes that the Russian troops are daily advancing, and that if they ever occupy Afghanistan they will continue in possession of that country. Mr. F. B. Johnsón Soft.

the refusal of these firms to pay the new sched-ule, the journeymen were ordered to guit work, and in compliance with this order, about forty of them did so yesterday. The strikers declare they will not resume work unless paid the scale set forth in the time log. A merchant tailor said to The World last inght: "This action of the journeymenis going to involve other parties in a strike, if I am not a wrong in my conclusions. An idea prevails a manong the tailoresses that they, too, should be paid higher prices for their work, and they are bound to strike if they don't get it. Strikes are the fashion now, and the women will fall into line."

The Men Out on Strike-A weekand for an Increase in Wages. The great majority of the hand-sewing shoes makers of the city are still out on strike be-cause of the refusal of the bosses to grant their demands of a raise of 25 cents on the old prices for making single-soled and double-soled shoes, $2.20 and $2.45, which would make the new prices $2.50 and $2.45, which would make the new prices $2.45 and $2.70.

A Harbinger of Spring.

The first bluebird is again appearing in fa-vored spots. He looks at the weather reports and rapidly disappears, a very blue bird, indeed. Why are the dreamers of the spring-tide always looking for this bluebird? They should view the blue and other delicately-tinted neckties which quinn the shirtmaker opened up yesterday.
