Wronged Girl's Facher.

HAMILTON, Jan. 11.—As the fall assizes the eduction case of Camp v. Blowes was tried and the jury disagreed. The suit was brought by Robt, Camp of Lynden against Russell G. Blowes, a young married man, for the seduction of his daughter Lucinda. Lucinda is a good looking girl, but the plaintiff's counsel strove to show that she was a little weak minded. The evidence given in the trial to day was similar to that given as the previous eitinga. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiff of $500 and costs.

ENDS JANUARY 31, 1888.

Ten per cent. discount on all packages over $2 Our Firm dissolves partnership on Jan. 31st, some of the partners retiring. On November 24th last we commenced a sale of DRY GOODS. READY MADE CLOTHING, CARPETS, ber 24th last we commenced a sale of DRY GOODS. READY MADE CLOTHING, CARPETS, WOOLLENS, MANTLES and MILLINERY, which has offered, and now offers, opportunities to the Cash Customer that have seldom been equalled in Toronto. Money was required to settle with the retiring partners. Our stock, which was worth four hundred thousand dollars on November 24, is worth less than three hundred thousand now, over one hundred thousand dollars on November 24, is worth less than three hundred thousand now, over one hundred thousand dollars worth hrving been disposed of. Our fifty years experience as buyers in the best markets of the lars worth hrving been disposed of. Our fifty years experience as buyers in the best markets of the world has enabled us always to sell at prices often lower than the wholesale trade. Judge, then, of your chances when you know that these closely cut prices are greatly reduced and subject, as well, to an additional Ten Per Cent. Discount.

We fintter ourselves that THE GOLDEN LION has always enjoyed the reputation of selling first ass goods at low prices—that reputation is being more than maintained now.
