Tee Bad Even for a Judge te Listen to.
CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—A divorce case that san disturb a Chicago judge may be supposed to be pretty bad, but that is the kind of a case that came before Judge Horton.
Mrs. Louis A. McCarthy was the complainant, and with sobs and tears and fainting turns she explained that the ground for her divorce was her husband's criminal convertation with her own daughter. The daughter corroborated her statement. Judge Horton was so deeply affected by the story that after granting the divorce and ordering the husband to be proceeded against criminally he declined to hear the rest of his asses, closed court and went home.
