NEW YORK HORSE SHOW. WHAT A PROMINENT TORONTOIAN THINKS OF THE AMERICANS.

Mr. John Macdonald Was Well Treated at the Metropolis and Highly Delighted With What He Saw Some of the Differences Noted Between Canadian and American Horse Fanatics.

It would appear from an article in the last issue of The Rider and Driver, signed "American," that the Canadians who visited the horse show in New York were accorded a treatment incommensurate with the hospitality proffered to New Yorkers who visited the Toronto Horse Show.

Mr. John Macdonald, who has just returned from the metropolis, when interviewed by The World yesterday, had no complaint to make. He was handsomely treated, he says.

Asked for his impressions, Mr. Macdonald said that the horse show in New York was the first in which his business has allowed him to attend the horse show, and he was of the opinion that in magnitude and public enthusiasm, its success was marvelous. Mr. Macdonald is also of the opinion that the horse show has affected New York permanently.

There are thousands of people who attend and never see a horse. The ring is wider, but not so long as at the Toronto Horse Show. It is so great that it takes an hour and a quarter to walk around the ring.

JOHN EATON CO. LTD. Temperance and Yonge Sts.

As I look out from the windows where the dry leaves whip about in the sunshine, methinks where-of our store should be thankful.

Commanded by powers of law, the great business rests to-day, but many days ago we gave vent to our feelings in the shape of a "Harvest Home."

Overflowing with prosperous business, it was ours to give our thanks in such a shape worthy of the time—it was yours to come, and bless your hearts you came.

But for the holiday of to-day, you could come and enjoy this menu in our sky restaurant, but even the old stoves that do the cooking shall have rest to-day.

Come with us to-morrow and enjoy this luncheon:
